Animal Lovers Lose Round 1

Impassioned pleas by animal lovers had little effect on the Daly City council Monday night as they passed an ordinance limiting the number of animals a person can own in Daly City from 25 to two.

The door was left open, however, to arbitration with City Attorney Paul Hupf, who allowed that a workable arrangement could be made to the satisfaction of all and that perhaps the ordinance could be amended to include more animals.

At the same time, the city would work for better system of citizen protection against nuisance situations created by noisy or unsanitary conditions from animals.

Attorney Donald E. Cavileer of Sacramento, appeared in behalf of the Bulldog Owners of California; Westlake Kennel Club, Pacifica Dog Fanciers Club and the Northern California Dog Owners Association.

Cavileer said he thought the matter wouldn't be coming up to an immediate vote and that Daly City has lived successfully by and large with the 25 animals ordinance for 27 years.

"This represents a drastic change from 25 to 2 animals," he said.

"There are many people who have moved here because they were not beset by some of the controls in other communities.

"Were this ordinance passed," Cavileer asserted, "people would be forced to leave this community."

He said that many people who support Daly City would be affected.

Joseph Kelly, president of the Northern California Dog Owners Club and a member of the Pacifica Dog Fanciers, asked for "consideration."

"I agree a family on Alexander street has created quite a problem. We dog owners feel they are not the type we want in Daly City. Because of one family, you shouldn't penalize all pet owners. This is discriminating against a hobby—our enjoyment."

"We have the feeling that we might produce the perfect dog. Where else can we go if we are thrown out of here?"

Kelly asked the council to inspect the homes of dog fanciers. He said he knew of an old couple where the husband stayed home due to illness and the wife worked. The husband had four pekinese and a couple of cats for company. "Should she kill these animals?" Kelly asked.

Study School Sites In Christen Development

By Garry Niver

Regardless of whether the Christen land development is annexed to Daly City, the local Jefferson High School and Jefferson Elementary Districts will be responsible for part of the education facilities of the area.

The local districts were precipitated into action last week at the announcement of the sale. Almost half of the proposed home development, from 200 to 350 acres, lies within the boundaries of the two local districts. The other part of the Christen land is the responsibility of the South San Francisco Unified District.

The boundary for the districts will be the proposed Hickey boulevard extension which will reach from Junipero Serra, along the northern boundaries of the Chinese Cemetery, to Skyline boulevard. Everything north will lie in the Jefferson High School and Elementary districts, while to the south would be the South SF district.

Edward Morgan, superintendent of the Jefferson Union High School District, said yesterday that if the lands are converted into a heavy residential development, the necessity of acquiring a high school site in the area is imminent.

Charles Davis, superintendent of the South San Francisco Unified School District has indicated that the South SF district will also acquire a high school site, contingent on what type of development is planned.

Jefferson Elementary District superintendent Richard Foster contemplates from four to six new elementary schools and at least one junior high school for the area.

"Our biggest problem is knowing the exact plans of their proposed development so that we can select our school sites in strategic places and set up our master plan as an integral part of the development," said Foster. "The money is no problem," he added.

A JUHSD High school would have to be built because Westmoor would be unable to absorb the load of youngsters from that district, reported Morgan. "Westmoor has space for 2200 youths, and counting the students now in the Jefferson Elementary district, it will reach its capacity in 1966," he said.

According to Morgan, if such a high school were built in the Christen area, it would also serve the Fairmont sub-division in Pacifica, which currently has 1800 homes under construction, and residents of Westview, Pacific Heights and Portola Heights.

The big problem of initiating plans for a high school in an undeveloped area such as this, is that the school district cannot generate any state eligibility funds for the project off of the raw land.

"We must meet with the owners, find out their intentions as to land usage, and then acquire a statement from the builder estimating how many homes will be built in the area during the next seven years," said Morgan.

All three administrators have contacted the new owners, Suburban Realty, and future meeting dates are being set up.

A Christen high school for South San Francisco will solve two problems, according to Davis. Youths from Westborough are currently being transported to South San Francisco High School. The Christen land is contiguous with Westborough, and would provide a high school for both developments.

JUHSD Board Meeting

TN Addition Plans Oked

The ever-growing Jefferson Union High School District, after having one high school dedicated two weeks ago, continues to leap forward in its building program.

Last Monday night the trustees, after hearing a report on the construction of the Jefferson project, voted in the intermediate drawings for the second increment of Terra Nova High School.

Construction for the new addition is expected to get under way in June and be ready for occupancy by September, 1964. The board approved the drawings presented by Richard Heidloff of Falk & Booth, architects, which would increase the capacity of Terra Nova from the present 950 students to 1,503 students.

Superintendent Edward Morgan proposed to the board that the final plans be completed and approved before April of 1963, so that the bids on the project can be accepted, and construction started on June 1.

The total cost of the new increment is $1,049,782. Of this, $876,000 will be for actual construction and the other monies alloted to architectural and inspection fees.

Included in the second increment will be a library and an electronics lab. The present library will be divided into a homemaking room and typing room.

Heidloff also reported that the Jefferson project is 52 per cent complete, which is still 10 per cent behind the projected schedule. "However, the contractor seems to be gaining on it at a steady pace," said Heidloff. Completion date for the Jeff project is March 28, 1963.

Morgan also reported that the district may be eligible this year to initiate plans for the second increment at Oceana. It was originally forecast that the district would have to wait until the 1963-64 year. However, enough eligibility may come from the projected district attendance from parochial and private schools to permit the district to submit their application to the state this year.

In other action, business manager Fred Goodell reported that the district had sold $1,430,000 in tax-free bonds to the Bank of America at a "favorable interest rate of 3.12 per cent." The sale reduced the district's bonding capacity to $2,600,000.

Students from Terra Nova High School attended the meeting and were commended by the board for their presence and participation.

Fund Drive Started For Folger Family

Daly City realtors have started a fund drive for the family of DeWayne L. Folger, 29, real estate man who died Nov. 17 in a car crash about a mile south of Daly City on the Edgemar freeway. A checking account in his name has been opened for funds at Box 3295 at the Westlake Branch of Bank of America, 25 Westlake Court, Daly City.

His wife, Carol Folger, 29, was severely injured in the crash and is expected to be hospitalized at least nine months with head injuries and fractures of her jaw and both legs.

The children, Deborah, Elizabeth, Susan, are staying with the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Folger.

Harter, assisted by Kay Wooster of Wooster Realty, 131 School street, plans to contact local businessmen to assist the Folger family.

Folger was sales manager and escrow manager for Herndon Realty, 1959 Junipero Serra boulevard, where he worked the past three years.

Funeral services were held Nov. 21 at Chapel by the Sea Mortuary in Pacifica. Burial was at Memorial Park Cemetery, Colma. Folger, a Pacifica resident the past five years and a native of Oklahoma, is surviver also by brothers John and Robert.

Charlotte L. Farver of 432 Johnson avenue, Pacifica, was pronounced dead at 2:30 p.m. She was found lying across her bed. Her husband, George Farver, 60, told officers the woman seemed in fairly good spirits and he could see no reason why she took her life.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 11:30 a. m. at Nauman & Lincoln's Chapel by The Sea Mortuary, Coast Highway, Pacifica. Interment will be at Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guice of Burlingame; a sister, Mrs. Martha Cumbert of San Mateo, and a brother, James N. Guice, Jr., of Jackson, Calif.

Solicitor Ordinance Is Passed

An ordinance making it unlawful for any person or organization to solicit from door to door without first obtaining a permit from the city, was passed Monday night by the Daly City council.

The ordinance shall not apply to solicitation made solely for evangelical, missionary, religious, charitable, educational or other purposes, by any bonafide religious corporation, denomination, society or church.

These groups must file a written notice of intention, accompanied by written approval from the bishop, elder or presiding officer at least five days before the commencement of solicitation.

The ordinance states that other solicitors must file in writing at least 15 days before beginning to solicit. They must give the name, address, purpose, total amount of funds to be solicited and a statement of reasons showing the need for the funds solicited.

The city will also ask for the name and address of persons by whom the receipts will be distributed, name and address of persons in direct charge of solicitation and names of all promoters connected with proposed solicitations.

Police will have the authority to investigate applications. Permit fee is $1 and the permit is non-transferrable.

Solicitors will also be required to fill out a report to the Daly City finance department, stating how much money was secured from the solicitations.

Ask For Card

Daly City police commented Aug. 22 that the intended victims of the dishonest solicitor is the householder—the lone housewife, the unsuspecting youngster, the absent resident.

Officers warned that citizens should call the police at any time a solicitor has not or will not identify himself with a green identification card. The card will be signed by a member of the finance department.

No one may legally solicit without such identification.

Woman Forger Is Arrested

A 28-year-old woman who started a bank account in Daly City after she allegedly forged $2,619 in checks from a Santa Barbara woman, was arrested by U. S. Postal authorities in San Francisco last Wednesday and turned over to Daly City police.

The woman, Doris Maude Bickerstaff, a fair haired office worker from Croydon, England, was charged with forging checks in the name of Greta M. Blickenstaff of 196 Hot Springs road, Santa Barbara.

According to police reports, the woman had stayed at 620 Post street, San Francisco, until September, when she took up residence in Santa Barbara and was receiving her mail at the general delivery post office there.

While in Santa Barbara, she looked through the telephone book in search of a person with a similar name as hers and possibly find a relative.

She came across the name of Greta M. Blickenstaff of 162 Hot Springs Road and made a note of it.

About Oct. 13 she decided to move back to San Francisco. She went to the Santa Barbara post office and completed a change of address order to have her mail sent to general delivery, San Francisco. Then she decided to submit a second change of address in the name of Greta M. Blickenstaff, also to general delivery, San Francisco.

On her arrival in San Francisco, she began to get her mail.

She received a letter containing a check for $2,619, and also another check for $23.

The woman went to a Daly City bank, made out a less cash deposit in an account opened on Oct. 26. She deposited $1,100, taking the balance of $1,543 in cash in the name of A. Plymouth.

Postal inspectors received a complaint from Mrs. Blickenstaff of Santa Barbara. They investigated and arrested the woman.

Doris Maude Bickerstaff, was born in Croydon, England, and had attended college in Brighton, England. Her nearest relative was listed as William Brunton of Santa Barbara.

LANDSLIDE—Residents in and around 703 Beechwood drive in Westlake woke up with a start last week to find their backyards caved in. Workers earlier had dug a foundation to shore up a sagging retainer wall. It fell down during the night, leaving a 30-foot cave-in. Electric power lines sagged and power poles were in danger of falling. Crews worked on the lines the next day. A six-foot high wooden retainer fence cracked in the middle and fell ten feet. Herb Anderson of 703 Beerchwood said the wall fell down with a "rumble."

SSF The Hub Of Produce Trucking

With the opening of the new produce Terminal, South San Francisco has become a hub for inter state trucking operations. Huge van lines from all over the West are now picking up their fresh fruit and produce here at the Terminal. The modern and complete truck dock facilities featured at the Terminal make this possible.

Truckers from all over the Western States have been going to Los Angeles for their cargoes, because the over-congestion of the out-dated San Francisco market and its total lack of accommodations for the big rigs, made it impossible for the large trucks to approach, much less load at, the stalls of the San Francisco wholesale produce dealers.

These truckers from Utah, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Wyoming are now heading to South San Francisco for their cargoes.

The special dock arrangements at the South San Francisco Terminal will also facilitate the fast and orderly movement of large rigs within the Terminal. Excellent rail facilities are also a feature of the new Terminal.

Ideally located to handle business by highway, railroad and air transport, the wholesale produce market is situated west of Bayshore Freeway just one

Slight Decrease In Narcotics Arrests

Total narcotic arrests in California showed a 5.5 percent decrease in 1961 from the 1960 totals, according to Attorney General Stanley Mosk.

In a report entitled, "Narcotic Arrests and Dispositions in California-1961," the Attorney General states:

"The year of 1961 is a watermark date in the fight against the illicit narcotic traffic in our State. In 1961, new narcotic laws were passed and became effective, the strongest in California's history.

"We have coupled greatly increased penalties for narcotic crimes with the leading rehabilitation programs.

"This publication reveals a decrease in the narcotic crime rate. It is hopefully an indication that we are making definite progress in this important and difficult field."

The 96-page report, prepared by the California Department of Justice, Bureau of Criminal Statistics is the fourth in a series of comprehensive statistical summaries on the narcotic problem.

The report reveals that during 1961, a total of 18,190 narcotic arrests were reported in California by local, State, and Federal law enforcement agencies. The total includes both narcotic and dangerous drug arrests. Approximately 83 percent of the arrests occurred in Southern California and 69 percent were in Los Angeles County alone.

5.5 Percent Decrease

Total narcotic arrests under State and Federal statutes showed a decrease of 5.5 percent under the number reported during 1960, the report states. Arrests of adults for violation of State narcotic and dangerous drug laws decreased by 3.3 percent during 1961, as compared to 1960. The decrease amounted to 2.8 percent in Los Angeles County and 4.4 percent in the rest of the State. Narcotic addict or user arrests decreased by 9.4 percent statewide while arrests for dangerous drugs showed an increase of 31 percent.

The report goes on to say that, "Los Angeles County had the largest number of arrests (11,418) followed by San Diego County (1,164), San Francisco County (1,074), and Alameda County (659). Sixteen of the State's 58 counties did not report a single adult narcotic arrest during 1961. Fifteen other counties reported fewer than 10 arrests each." The report further says that, "It is obvious that the California narcotic problem exists largely in the metropolitan areas of Southern California and to a lesser extent in the San Francisco Bay area. Less than 5 percent of the total arrests occurred in other areas of the State."

One table in the report shows the percentages of age groups of adult offenders arrested for State narcotic law violations during 1961. The report concludes that, "This table clearly shows the youthfulness of narcotic offenders, over two-thirds (68.6 percent) of whom were 30 years of age or under. Almost half (46.4 percent) were 25 or younger. Less than 9 percent were 40 or over. In general, offenders in Los Angeles County were an even younger group than those in the rest of the State."

"There seems to be a close correlation between age and the type of offense for which arrested. It is evident that the younger age groups are more involved in marijuana and dangerous drug offenses as contrasted to the association of older offenders with heroin-type offenses and the 'other offense' group (primarily prescription offenses)."

The report states that as of December 31, 1960, there were 17,783 different adult offenders in the statistical files. During 1961, there were 8,984 new persons added, giving a total of 26,767 individuals reported during a 30-month period.

The highly repetitive charter of certain narcotic offenders is emphasized by the showing that during 1961, 37.7 percent of the addict-user arrested were persons already known to the study (which was commenced in July 1959). "The ratio of repeaters was also quite high for the heroin and other narcotics arrest group. These data seem to indicate clearly that among heroin-type offenders lies the greatest amount of recidivism."

Extensive data are given in the report for the prior criminal record of arrestees. On a statewide basis, 10.8 percent of all adult arrestees had no previous dentifiable criminal record. One out of each five arrestees had previously served a prison sentence. Over one-third had served at least one 90-day sentence. Over half of all addict-user arrestees had major prior records.

According to the report, a total of 10,941 different individuals had been reported as being users of heroin-type narcotics during the 30-month period ending December 31,1961. "With inclusion of two or three more years of experience the figure may approach the 20,000 given as the extreme value in previous estimates."

Four Youths Hurt on Chinese Cemetery Rd.

Four youths were injured, two seriously, when their car went out of control Sunday on Chinese Cemetery Road and plunged down a 35 foot embankment.

California highway patrolmen reported that George Ackley, 14, of 137 LaCross avenue in South San Francisco, was driving eastbound when the car went out of control on a curve, went down the embankment and ejected him and three passengers from the vehicle.

Treated at Junipero Serra Hospital and taken to Mills Hospital with a shoulder injury was Timothy Page, 12, of 208 Ottawa street, San Mateo. Patti Hueth, 15, of 333 Forest drive, South San Francisco, suffered an amputated upper ear and fractured wrists and was taken to St. Mary's Hospital following treatment at Junipero Serra Hospital. Ackley and another passenger, Barbara Minahan, 15 of 329 Farmview drive, were treated for minor injuries.

New Post Office For Pacifica

A new postoffice for Pacifica will be under way shortly and be completed within five months, it was announced today by Congressman J. Arthur Younger.

Contract for construction and lease of the building was awarded to the Postal Leasing Corporation, Kansas City, Missouri, for a period of 10 years with options to renew for up to 10 years additional time.

Located at the Southeast corner of West Manor Drive and Esplanade the facility will have 24,320 square feet of space, with working interior of 7,428 square feet and 11,677 square feet provided for parking and postal vehicles.

There were eight bidders for the job with the Postal Leasing Corp. submitting the lowest cost offer.

The land will be purchased from Axel V. Johnson, San Mateo; Perry A. Bygdnes, Redwood City, and H. E. Sidele, Millbrae and Pacifica.

Younger said that the new postal facility will give Pacifica one of the best postoffice set ups in the county with ample attention being given to the growth possibilities of the North Coastside.

Under the lease plan the property remains on local tax rolls and the government has no capital investment except for postal equipment. The Linda Mar postoffice (Station A.) will be continued to serve Linda Mar residents, Younger said.

The Pacifica postoffice brings to 12 the new postal facilities secured by Younger since he became Congressman.

Youth Held For Window Breaking

A string of broken windows along Mission street led Daly City police to the arrest last Sunday of Richard Grant, 18, of 269 Peoria street.

Police said Grant admitted he used a towing chain to break windows and said he had been drinking. Officers suspected two other youths in the window smashing.

Police received complaints of windows smashed in at Starlight Restaurant, 6123 Mission, James Donohue auto sales, 6269 Mission; Best Way Market, 479 Bellevue avenue; the Collopy building, Mission and Market; an electronics store at Bellevue and Acton, and a car on Evergreen street.

Varied Activities At Jeff High School

Besides the academic classes offered at Jefferson High, there are various activities in which many of the students participate.

These activities are set aside for the student enjoyment and interest.

For the student interested in art, or for art majors, there is the Fine Arts Club. Their activities include plays, lectures, concert, jazz sessions, etc.

The intellectual students form the California Scholarship Federation (C.S.F.). This is a state-wide organization composed of students with an A or A- average. Activities in this club are visits to local colleges and universities, and also an annual luncheon.

The Spanish Club is set up for students who have taken or are taking Spanish. Activities within their club are visits to plays and Spanish movies.

The students who are interested in entering the business world are usually found in the Business Club. Following the business line in its activities include visits to offices and places of business.

The French Club, which is similar to the Spanish Club is open to all students who are taking or who have taken French. This club provides a student the opportunity to use the French language.

For those who are highly-spirited and like to yell, there is the Pep Club. It is organized to promote the spirit at games and rallies.

The Boys' Block "J" represents Jeff's athletics and is composed of the boys who participate in any one of the school sports.

Clubs are not the only activities in which the students of Jeff participate. For example, every year the students take a considerable amount of time in organizing a Model Senate and Model United Nations. This furthers the student's knowledge of how these organizations function.

Jeff also contains within its activities the more popular class dances. These are given by each class to raise funds for their treasury. They are mainly provided for social pleasure and usually have a successful year, and turnout.

Of course, you cannot forget the school sports. These are activities which are enjoyed by almost everyone and are participated in a large number and percentage of the athletic boys. Sports aid in giving a school the spirit it should have.

mile north of International Airport. It is within a few minutes of San Francisco, and easily accessible to customers in the East Bay, Marin County, and, of course, the Peninsula. In addition, it is located close to fine hotel and motel accommodations.

Besides providing all the trucking facilities needed at the produce market, builders worked out an arrangement with the Barrett Truck Terminal and Car Rental Agency immediately adjacent to the huge produce market. The Barrett organization is providing 24-hour truck servicing facilities—everything from lubrication and oil changes to a major overhaul.

Merced Heights Neighborhood Group To Meet

An evening of music will be the theme of the Merced Heights Neighborhood Association meeting, Monday, December 3, at 8 p.m., at the auditorium of Jose Ortega School, 400 Sargent street. There will be Christmas carols, Hanukkah songs and Negro spirituals.

Preceding the evening's entertainment there will be reports from the committees working on Holloway street parking problems, the need for additional playground supervision and the neighborhood landscape project.

In the high wind area at the top of the hill, the New Zealand Christmas tree is one of the few which will prosper. In the next windiest area, on the exposed slopes, the Bottle Brush will do well, and in the relatively sheltered areas, the Eucalyptus Ficafolia will thrive. All of these trees are red-flowered, making for a unified planting effect.

The meeting is open to the general public as well as to the members of the Merced Heights Neighborhood Association.

John L. Worde, 263 Alexander and Larry Yule, 251 Alexander, said they live next door to a family that has some 25 dogs that bark and create unsanitary conditions.

They spoke out in favor of the ordinance, and complained about the "pack of baying hounds."

In conjunction with the "Miss Christmas Spirit" contest, the Daly City-Colma Junior Chamber of Commerce is also conducting a drive for canned goods which will be given to needy families of the area.

Several markets in the Daly City-Colma area are allowing space for containers into which customers may donate canned goods. These containers will be available from December 7 to December 22 and they will be serviced by the Jaycees. Look for the locations to be announced next week, then be first with a gift of canned or packaged (non-perishable) foods.

Alec Land of ALEC Shopping Center, located on Junipero Serra boulevard in Colma, has generously donated $200 in gift certificates to be distributed by the Jaycees to the needy families.

The distribution of canned goods and gift certificates is part of the Christmas time activities of the Jaycees, all of which will be climaxed with the crowning of "Miss Christmas Spirit" and the selection of her court.

These old men and women simply cannot be let down on Christmas morning.

Packages will be accepted at the Home (7th Avenue at Dewey Blvd.) up to December 22. It is then that the crews move in, wrap, assort, distribute and do everything possible to insure a Merry Christmas for these very old people. 73,327 Take Type II Vaccine

Sabin II Donations Total $594,956 in Bay Area Counties

Donations for Sabin Type II oral polio vaccine on November 4 totaled $594,965.44, for an average contribution of 23.39 cents from each of the 2,621,673 persons who turned out in the six Bay Area counties, Dr. Deane T. Adams, Bay Area Medical Association Committee treasurer, reported today.

Type II totals show a slight drop-off from those of September 23, when Type I vaccine was given, he noted. The round one average was 24.27 cents.

The Type II total does not include thousands of persons who received Sabin vaccine at make-up clinics during the week following November 4. In addition, thousands of dosages have been given free at many hospitals, nursing homes and corrective institutions, Dr. Adams said.

The long, laborious job of counting the donations—in small change and currency—was done by Wells Fargo bank officials and employees, many of whom worked at night after their regular duties were performed.

Type II donations by counties were: Marin, $30,722.67; Santa Clara, $141,721.27; San Mateo, $89,642.60; Alameda, $149,492.54; Contra Costa, $75,021.10, and San Francisco, $108,365.06.

Funds collected will be applied to the expenses of the total K.O. Polio program, Dr. Adams said. Total expenses will not be known until after Type III vaccine is given next March.

However, when the program is concluded, any surplus of donations over total expenses will be given to charitable programs for public benefit, Dr. Adams declared. Programs will be announced later.

The entire program is sponsored by 6,000 private physicians in the San Francisco Medical Society, Marin Medical Society, Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association and the San Mateo and Santa Clara County Medical Societies.

A total of 73,327 persons took Sabin Type II oral polio vaccine in Bay Area K. O. POLIO makeup clinics following the mass immunization on November 4, raising the number of Type II inoculations here to 2,621,673 for a percentage of 74.0, program chairman Dr. Edward B. Shaw announced today.

The new totals revealed that Santa Clara County scored the highest immunization percentage—79.7. Lowest was San Francisco's 64.4 per cent.

Other counties reported these new totals: Marin, 79.0 per cent; Contra Costa, 78.8 per cent; San Mateo, 77.2, and Alameda, 72.3 per cent.

The entire program, most successful mass immunization project in American medical history, was organized and led by private physicians in the San Francisco Medical Society, Marin Medical Society, Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association and the San Mateo and Santa Clara County Medical Societies.

Boy's Town Becomes "Teenager"

The West's "boys' town" will become a "teenager" late this month when Hanna Boys' Center, Sonoma home for neglected boys of all races and creeds, observes its 13th anniversary with an afternoon open house for friends from throughout California.

This week, the 120 young citizens of the little "town" in the Valley of the Moon asked the Times to submit their annual program report to Daly City area residents.

Highlight of the year was the arrival of the 800th boy to find a home at Hanna Center, which has been built entirely with voluntary contributions and bequests, many of them from this part of the state. The home's director, Rt. Rev. William L. O'Connor, expressed appreciation to the many local residents whose interest has helped enable the center to accept boys from an area extending from San Diego to Alaska.

Hanna Center's 17 buildings are located upon 180 acres near Jack London's famous "Wolf House." One hundred acres of ranch land carry more than 100 head of livestock, mostly Hereford cattle, donated by California ranchers.

Much of the training for productive citizenship is conducted in the trade school, where boys are taught the elements of such skills as general merchandise, carpentry, metals and electricity.

Boys have come to the center from 38 of California's 58 counties, including many from San Mateo County. The Peninsula is represented on the home's board of directors by George Doherty, James C. Hickey and Robert A. Tarver, all of Hillsborough; Thomas R. Moroney of San Mateo, and Oliver V. Merle of Burlingame.

The director reported that 1962 brought further development of the ranch and trade school programs at the little community, and that a dream of many years became a reality with establishment of a scholarship loan program to insure further education for young alumni of the center.

The first loan was made in mid-summer to a young man handicapped in his study of law by the necessity of working full time to support himself. The director stressed that continuation of this program depends upon continued favorable response to an annual letter of appeal which he and his boys send to many California homes. Sympathetic response has been vital, since it has been the boys' principal source of support.

The work of Hanna Center's leaders only begins with provision of a home for boys in need of a home. Academic and trade schools emphasize spiritual values, the dignity of labor, and training in good citizenship through facing the problems and duties of community living.

Progress is measured in terms of respectful, productive lives being led by the home's young alumni in such varied occupations as ranching, law, electronics, dentistry, and most of the building trades and military services.

The La Paz Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, Pacifica, will meet as usual on Monday, December 3, at 8:15 p. m. at Nick's Restaurant.

The second reading of the proposed amendments to the parlor's by-laws will be held and also the plans for the Christmas party will be made.

Scout Troop 63 Holds Ceremonies

Boy Scout Troop 63 held its annual Charter Night and Court of Honor this past Monday evening, November 26, at the Westlake Clubhouse, according to Herbert E. Quandt, secretary of the troop committee.

Presentation of the troop's charter was made by Scout executive Martin Bushnell to committee chairman Al Richter. In recognition of his three years as Scoutmaster, there was a special award to Richard Merritt, now an East Bay resident. Daly City Scouts receiving awards and participating in the program included: Grant Merritt, Warren Richter, Mike Spiegelman, Rupert Wall, Ken Muller, John Conwell, Jack Lutz, Ken Perluss, Daryl Shamitoff, Richard Gordon, Peter Bellak, Robert Ricci, Bruce Herald, Stanley Aron, James Schiffman, Larry Diamond, David Goodwin, Robert Himm and Larry Wolf. Four new Scouts, former Webelos of Cub Pack 63 were welcomed into the troop: Donald Getchel, Douglas Herald, George Cipriano, and John Stutzman. Epicurean highlight of the evening was a fabulous cake prepared by refreshment chairman Kurt Wolff.

Former Stonestown Ad Chief Promoted

John Milton, former advertising director for the Stonestown Shopping Area and most recently promotion manager for the Hillsdale Shopping Center in San Mateo, has been made vice-president of Delphi Associates. The announcement was made by James P. Polakof, president of the public relations firm.

While at Stonestown, Milton achieved national recognition by conducting the world's largest hula hoop contest, "firing" a Jupiter-C rocket from the parking lot, and having a hand in Premier Kruhschev's visit to the center. He also organized the largest single promotion ever undertaken by Hillsdale.

Milton is first vice-president of the West of Twin Peaks Lions Club, San Francisco. He attended the Virginia Military Institute and the University of Chicago. He makes his home in the Eichler Highlands, San Mateo.

Mary's Help Alumnae Launch Nursing School Golden Jubilee

Under the theme, "Prescriptions for Progress," the Alumnae Association of Mary's Help Hospital College of Nursing will launch the Nursing School's Golden Jubilee Year this December 1, with a special Christmas party at the hospital, 145 Guerrero St., San Francisco, it was announced today by Alumnae President Mrs. Lillie Abram Menges, R.N., Class of '36. Mrs. Menges, now a San Francisco housewife, lives at 242 Bright Street.

Sister Hermine, Administrator at Mary's Help Hospital, will be hostess for the Golden Jubilee Year Dinner, and the principal guest of honor will be the venerable Sister Agatha, R.N. who, the following day (December 2, 1962), will celebrate her Diamond Jubilee as a Daughter of Charity...and the first pharmacist licensed in the State of California. She is still active!

The remarkable Sister Agatha will also be celebrating her Golden Anniversary of continuous service with Mary's Help Hospital in San Francisco, having been a member of the courageous little Community of Daughters of Charity who founded Mary's Help Hospital in San Francisco more than a half century ago.

Sister Agatha became head of the pharmacology department when the hospital was rebuilt in 1912, after being destroyed by the great fire of 1906, before it could be officially opened to the public. Records are reported to show Sister Agatha was the first person registered as a pharmacist by the California State Board of Pharmacy.

Mrs. Dolores Mesina Leonard, R.N., class of 1954, of 79 Santa Clara avenue, Daly City, is chairman of the Jubilee Year program, and Mrs. Catherine Kirby Colling, R.N., class of '33, is chairman of the Launching Christmas Party on December 1. Mrs. Colling lives at 937 Judah street, San Francisco. Reservations chairman is Mrs. Catherine O'Donnell, R.N., class of '19, who resides at 355 Laguna street.

The committee in charge has asked Mayor George Christopher to declare the week of December 1-7 "Mary's Help Hospital College of Nursing Golden Jubilee Week."

When asked about retirement, the octogenarian Sister Agatha said: "Retirement? I should say not! Who do you suppose is going to supervise the installation of the pharmacy in our new hospital when it opens in Daly City in 1965?"

Having outgrown its present facilities in San Francisco's Mission district, Mary's Help Hospital is relocating in the fast-growing area of north San Mateo County, where grading for the new modern $8,000,000 general community hospital will begin the end of this month. Ground breaking ceremonies are scheduled for April of next year. Completion is expected in the spring of 1965.

"Mary's Help College of Nursing, which has been recognized as one of the most proficient in the country, will continue where it left off, starting its second half century with better facilities than ever before, just as soon as the magnificent new Mary's Help Hospital is ready for service at its new location in San Mateo County," said Mrs. Menges, alumnae president.

WESTLAKE SENIOR CITIZENS HONOR THE OLDEST MEMBER

The Westlake Senior Citizens Club celebrated the birthdate of their oldest member at a birthday party meeting November 7.

The guest of honor was Mrs. Mary Misenhimer, 94 years young.

Mrs. Misenhimer's daughter, Mrs. Margaret Elliot, surprised her mother with a beautifully decorated cake and the usual trimmings of ice cream, flowers and a rousing chorus if "happy birthday." Several other members with November birthdays also were honored at the party, which is a monthly event of the group.

The Pacific Telephone Company provided 30 minutes of entertainment featuring a capable and enjoyable speaker, Miss Joy Holmes, who explained the evolution of sound from the ancient turn-table phonograph to the hi-fi of today.

At the meeting of Wednesday, November 14, this energetic and growing organization celebrated its second anniversary by serving 57 members a roast beef luncheon. The club's special guest was Mona Baker, a triple-threat columnist of The Westlake Times. One of her columns on TV and Radio is informative and of special interest to parents who are concerned about picking suitable programs for their children's eyes.

The club is non-denominational and any person over 50 years of age is welcome to sample a meeting and become a member. Games are available, including dominoes, croquet and card games.

Members who wish to develop or improve a useful hobby will find here aid and ideas in sewing and knitting. Bring a sack lunch and enjoy the free dessert and coffee or tea. Interested persons may call the numbers below for further information: Mrs. Alyce Madsen at PL 5-2630 (director), or Mrs. Beatrice Batz, WY 2-3980 (president).

VOTE TALLY — Vera K. Gibson, Kern County clerk, checks operation of the central computer in Coleman Engineering Company's vote tally system with Harold J. Sarkissian, vice president of the Coleman Vote Tally System Division. The Coleman system was used by Kern County to tally ballots from all of the county's precincts in the November 6 election, the first time electronic tallying of conventional voter-marked paper ballots has been used in this county. Console operator in the foreground checks over a punched tape which will program computer to accept the count for the next precinct. Ballots, in sealed cases, were rushed to a central Bakersfield tally center at the close of polling, and were run through the Coleman system at the rate of 600 per minute, eliminating large counting crews at each precinct. Vote counts were automatically punched by the machine onto IBM cards.

Bulldog Cagers Open Season Against Marin

College of Marin provides the first test for College of San Mateo's 1962-63 basketball team in an 8 p. m. contest at Coyote Point Saturday.

Both squads will field veteran line-ups but perenial Golden Valley power Marin appears stronger on paper. Coach Cal Riemcke has four starters back from the team that finished second behind American River with a 10-2 conference record last fall.

Freshman San Mateo coach Jack Avina has only one first stringer back from Ralph Barkey's squad of last year, 6-6 center Bob O'Connell from Burlingame high school. But 5-11 Ron Stademan, a regular on Ray Balsey's 1957-58 team, returns at guard. Stademan, formerly of Burlingame high, scored 240 points in 25 games for Balsey's team. O'Donnell played in 25 of CSM's 31 games last year and had a 5.9 average and 59.6 field goal percentage.

San Mateo finished at 8-6 in a third place Big Eight conference tie with Oakland after becoming the rage of California in pre-season last fall. City College of San Francisco won the Big Eight crown and went on to the State title last season and is favored to repeat some of those honors in the new Golden Gate conference with three starters back.

The Bulldogs have two other lettermen on their starting five—guard Denis France (5-10), a Peninsula league scoring record breaker while at Hillside high, and forward Ted Winfield (6-5) of Arroyo high, CSM's best free throw shooter last year with a 68.9 percentage. Winfield now lives in San Mateo and his younger brother is a basketball and track (high jump) standout at Hillsdale high.

The remaining forward slot will be filled by Serra's John Carmichael (6-5), a second team All-Catholic choice last year. Sixth man on the Bulldog squad, according to Avina, is Mike Gilman who is "definitely a first stringer but we lack front line depth so we're moving him from guard to forward." Gilman (6-3) was second team all SPAL at Woodside last winter.

CSM Gridders Tie Unbeaten Comets

Although dethroned from their championship perch this season, College of San Mateo footballers reached a plateau of success in their finale Friday night against "perfect" Contra Costa at Burlingame high school.

The revenge minded Comets, who had won 11 games in a row since CSM beat them 54-6 last year, had to come from behind to grab a 14-14 tie with the Bulldogs.

Veteran halfback Clarence Hamel was the big man for the Mateans in the clash witnessed by a home record 4,000 fans.

County Urges Physical Fitness

The San Mateo County unit of the California Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, met recently at the California Teachers' Association.

The program included fitness and its relation to your health through "Health Education, Physical Education and Recreation." Speakers were Roland Davis, executive secretary, California Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation; Dr. Bortolozzo, president of College of San Mateo; Dr. Ed Williams, heart specialist, and recreation superintendent of the City of San Mateo, Matt Thiltgen.

Roland Davis told of physical educators' goal of health education being taught at all levels in education. Dr. Bortolozzo predicted San Mateo College to have the model physical education program for two-year colleges in California. "The program is built on mental and physical conditioning, sportsmanship and respect.

The College Heights campus will operate day and night the year around. Dr. Ed Williams charged the professional physical educators, health educators and recreators with the responsibility for teaching health methods and skills to the students to prevent the major killer in middle life, namely heart disease.

Dr. Williams stressed the importance of at least 15 minutes of strenuous exercise daily. "It's okay to hurt, hurt with less food and more exercise."

Matt Thiltgen told of the recreation department's fitness program, including 1,000 participating in a swim meet, 1,200 playing summer baseball, 500 in football programs.

The recreation departments are concerned with pre-school, school age, young adult and senior citizens' fitness programs. A physical fitness swap-shop for girls' and boys' physical education programs is planned in January, 1963.

NEW MOTOR HOTEL—Pretty Karen Jensen ("Miss Holiday") assist Fred P. Rapp, Jr. (left) and Gerald R. Rapp, co-owners of the new $3,000,000 Holiday Inn opening soon in South San Francisco, as they align the sign in front of their new motor hotel. Located on a six-acre site just north of International Airport, the South San Francisco Holiday is the first of the luxury motor hotel chain's establishments in the Bay Area. The plush hotel, located in the heart of the growing industrial area, will provide excellent facilities for conventions, trade shows and business meetings. Opening is set for December 15. The Holiday Inn sign, a landmark in the East and the South, will be seen frequently in California as 50 new hotels are planned for construction in the next few years.

Three Cahill Judoists Gain Belt Promotions

Three North County judoists earned promotions in rank in the Northern California Judo Black Belt Federation meet at South San Francisco High School recently.

The tourney drew well over 300 of the top judo competitors from California and Nevada.

Rick Ramiros and Eddie Rodriquez, with a win and a draw each, both were named to first degree Brown Belt class, just one step away from the coveted Black Belt category. Both men are from South San Francisco.

Rodriquez earned his win with a beautiful circle throw, wherein his opponent was flipped for a complete sommersault. Ramirez won by a decision, hoisting his man well off the mat several times, but being unable to take him in a clean fall.

Ed Nettleman of San Francisco, making his second start for the local team, was promoted from White Belt to Brown Belt, registering two wins and a loss.

Joe Benetti and Joe Souza, Brown Belts, both earned draws and were thus eliminated from further competition, as was Fred Cahill, Black Belt. Cahill is from San Bruno; Bonetti and Souza are from South San Francisco.

Other entries failing to connect were Phil Lara, South San Francisco; Ken Carper and Jack Angius, San Bruno; John Bonham, San Francisco, Brown Belts, and Richard Pagenelli, Daly City, and Melvin Untalan, Colma, White Belts.

YW-Wives Planning Yule Decor Meeting

One of Westlake's Y-Wives newer members, Mrs. Annabelle Holdiman, will present a program on suggestions for Christmas gifts and decorations with items you have at home.

The women of the community are welcome to attend this program, which will be held December 3, from 9:30 to 11 a. m. in the banquet room of the Westlake Bowl for a 50 cent fee, which includes nursery care by two reliable ladies, Mrs. Helen Davis and Mrs. Ralph Rogers, who are a mother and daughter team.

Coffee and tea will be served while you relax and enjoy the last of a series of programs on holiday ides which have been presented by the Westlake Y-Wives, sponsored by North San Mateo County's YWCA.

Ram Harriers Place Sixth At Stanford

It was a brilliant, sunshiny day "down on the Farm" Friday, November 16, but Westmoor's varsity Ram Harriers may have had a different viewpoint. For them it may as well have been Friday the thirteenth for all the luck they received was in placing a rather disappointing sixth in their heat, composed of teams from ten similarly sized high schools in Northern California.

First across the line for the green and white clad Rams and sixth in over-all competition was sophomore Chris Bravos in a time of 10:18. Bravos had been a standout for the Rams since his transfer to Westmoor in mid-season. Junior Dennis Tracy placed twenty-fifth, slipping somewhat from his usual top ten form. Another sophomore, Bob Beukers, ran four slots behind Tracy in the 29th position.

Ram Mark Clark steamed across the line in thirty-fifth with Ed Raymond close behind in thirty-ninth place to round out the Ram scoring.

With the season now concluded, Coach Herkenrath best expresses the feeling of the entire team by saying, "We'll be back next year with the much needed experience we lacked this season."

Daly City Garden Club To Present Flower Show

The Ninth Annual Standard Flower Show of the Daly City Garden Club will be staged in the Daly City War Memorial Community Center Sunday, December 2, from 2 to 9.

The public is invited to attend the display of artistic arrangements, floral displays and plants. Admission is free. Floral arrangements and potted plants may be placed in the exhibition room before 9 p.m., Saturday. All cut flowers must be placed on display tables Sunday morning not later than 10 a.m., at which time all competitors must leave the exhibition room.

There will be special complimentary floral exhibits by the following organizations: San Francisco Rose Society, American Begonia Society, Cactus and Succulent Society of California, Inc., Floral Arts Nursery, Daly City Parks and Recreation Dept., and educational exhibits by Friends of the Library, Club Conservation—Saving the Redwoods.

There will be a special artistic exhibit by Mrs. Ann Kohlhauf, who is well known for her exotic floral arrangements.

There also will be displayed several unusual complimentary floral and bonsi plantings.

Rambler Adopts Owner ID Card For Service Work

A new owner-identification system, which will serve as proof of coverage under 24-24 warranty, has been placed in operation by American Motors.

It is called the Rambler Protective Maintenance System.

Each buyer of a 1963 Rambler receives an imprinted plastic card which lists his name and address, the selling dealer's name, delivery date and all car identification numbers. The card is mailed to the owner soon after he takes delivery of his new car, along with a folder which tells how the plan operates.

The folder points out that the card should be presented to the service manager when the car is taken in for maintenance or warranty service. The service manager merely needs to insert the card into his data recorder, which imprints all the necessary identification information on the repair order.

The cards are prepared after the information is returned by the dealer to AMC.

The floor carpeting in the 1963 Dodge Dart has a polyethylene backing which improves its resistance to wear.

Gasoline Dangers Tamed?

FORT ERIE, Ont. — A pair of inventions which were billed as the answer to gasoline-tank explosions were demonstrated here last week.

The products are a metal mesh which is placed in any container for liquid fuel and a plug which contains the mesh and is placed at the mouth of the fuel tanks. They are the inventions of two Canadians who are recent arrivals from Hungary.

The inventors, Joseph Szego and Gyola Nemeth, said their products work on this principle:

The mesh breaks up the mass of air in a fuel container and divides it into small cells. The cells are so small that they cannot explode when heat is introduced because no cell contains enough oxygen to ignite. The metal mesh also distributes the heat evenly when the container comes in contact with flames.

The plug prevents fire from getting to fuel supplies in much the same manner. Since fire cannot be transmitted through the mesh-filled plug, heat cannot get from the outside into a fuel container to start a fire.

Demonstrations of the inventions were rather dramatic. Working with gasoline in situations which would normally produce an explosion, there were no explosions.

The mesh takes up 2 percent of the volume in a gasoline tank and, the inventors said, it is so light that it can be used in an airplane. The mesh is made of alloys that will not rust or taint gasoline in any other way, they said.

When the plug is used on a car gas tank, it is a five-inch tube containing about an inch of mesh and placed inside the filler spout.

3 Tire Makers Follow Goodyear In Price Boosts

Three more tire manufacturers have followed the lead of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. in boosting standard tire prices by 3 per cent and premium and other special tires by 5 or 6 per cent.

General Tire & Rubber Co. has boosted its prices 3 to 5 per cent, and United States Rubber Co. put similar hikes in effect.

Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. announced it would raise prices 3 to 6 per cent effective Nov. 15. B. F. Goodrich Co. is studying a price hike.

Reasons cited for the price raises were to provide a better profit margin, to cover increased operating costs and to "stabilize the pricing structure" in the tire industry.

$1.50 Quarterly Dividend Declared By General Motors

DETROIT. — General Motors directors last week declared a year-end dividend of $1.50 per share, consisting of the regular quarterly payout of 50 cents plus a $1 extra dividend. The Dec. 10 payment will go to 1,025,000 shareholders and will cost the corporation about $425 million.

The year-end bonus brings GM dividend payments for 1962 to $3 per common share. Last year, the corporation paid $2.50 per share, including a 50-cent year-end extra.

European Makes Shun Extension Of Warranties

Most European car makers are sticking with their old warranties on new cars sold in North America, it was learned in a survey of distributors and factory branches.

Warranties on European cars are the same in the United States as in Canada.

General Motors has said that its new 24,000-mile or 24-month warranty on cars manufactured in Canada and the U. S. will apply to its imports, chiefly Vauxhall and Opel.

After some hesitation, Ford decided against following suit and will hold to 12,000 miles or 12 months on its lines imported from England and Germany.

Cadillac to Shift Foundry Work to Other GM Plants

Cadillac foundry operations will be moved to other General Motors Corp. plants at the end of the '63 model run.

"The move will provide manufacturing 'turnaround' space and does not necessarily mean additional production," a Cadillac spokesman said. He said that the exact location of the foundry operations had not been determined.

The foundry employs 580. The company said that "an intensive effort is being made to absorb the foundry personnel in other Cadillac jobs as well as with other GM divisions."

The foundry shift was compared with Cadillac's moving of its sheet metal facilities in 1956 to the old Hudson Body Plant on Detroit's East Side.

This move, too, it was explained, was to provide "turnaround" space.

Cadillac's present manufacturing facilities provide no space for on-site expansion.

Night Driving

The California State Automobile Association offers these tips for night driving: Check all your lights; keep windshield and faces of dashboard gauges clean; dim your headlights for oncoming traffic and when you come up behind a car, should the oncoming driver fail to dim his lights, guide yourself by the right edge of the road; when dusk comes, use headlights, not parking lights.

Volkswagen Wins Design Citation

NEW YORK. — Volkswagen was given a special commendation for its design accomplishments by the jury for the Kaufmann International Design Award.

The jury said, "In awarding a special commendation to Volkswagenwerk, the jury calls attention to the best rounded expression of a new order of aesthetic relationships between man and machine which has recently begun to emerge, an order based on the idea of a direct and continuing relationship between manufacturer and ultimate owner throughout the useful life of the machine."

The jury also noted that the engineering concepts, manufacturing processes and worldwide servicing facilities of Volkswagen are designed to make the three-way relationship of producer, product and user as satisfactory as possible.

The three unit brake system Cadillac introduced in 1962 is improved in '63 with the introduction of sintered iron pistons in the wheel cylinders for added life and corrosion resistance.

1963 AUSTIN HEALEY, MGB, MG SEDAN ON SALE

Speedway Debut Sets Pace for Chrysler 300-J

Chrysler's 300-J, a high-performance road car with a 390-horsepower ram induction engine, was introduced recently at Indianapolis Speedway.

The 300-J, ninth in the alphabet series of Chrysler 300s which originated in 1955, is a two-door hardtop described by C. E. Briggs, Chrysler-Plymouth Division general manager, as "the best all-around road performance Chrysler we've ever built."

The engine uses ram-induction manifolding "for exceptional responsiveness on the road rather than for competition on a track." It develops the 390 HP at 4,800 revolutions per minute and 485 pounds-feet of torque at 3,600 RPM.

Engine displacement is 413 cubic inches; compression ratio 9.6 to 1. The 300-J has two four-barrel carburetors, a manual choke, mechanical valve gear and high-performance cams.

Buick's New Riviera Sports Coupe

The superb performance and maneuverability of a sports car are combined with styling elegance and craftsmanship in Buick's new Riviera coupe. The Riviera is powered by a 401-cubic inch engine combined with Buick's super smooth Turbine Drive transmission. The car is only 53.2 inches high and has a 15-inch center of gravity that permits the high degree of maneuverability desired in a personalized sports car. It boasts such styling and engineering innovations as a tilting steering wheel that can be tailored to any position desired by the driver and side windows without frames. Four bucket seats with center console are featured in the interior.

Lost Children Found But How About Wife?

DETROIT. — More than 200 children were reclaimed at the Lost and Found Department of the National Automobile Show, but the Automobile Manufacturers Assn. was unable to tell what happened to an adult who strayed.

"One wife was reported as missing by her husband," said AMA laconically. "There is no record of her being found."

Spattered Windshields

During rainstorms, says the California State Automobile Association, traffic often splatters mud on your windshield and headlights. Remember to keep your windshield wipers in good operating condition and to wipe off your headlights at frequent intervals.

Watch for Youngsters

The good driver, says the California State Automobile Association, remembers that his judgment should be better than the judgment of a child crossing the street. Give youngsters the benefit of the doubt — take it easy.

For 1963, Cadillac has presented as an option a steering wheel which is vertically adjustable to six positions.

Mercedes-Benz Offer New Transmission For US Sales

Mercedes-Benz' unique and versatile automatic transmission is now available on all six cylinder coupe and sedan models in the United States according to J. E. Reese, vice president of sales for Mercedes-Benz Sales, Inc.

"We believe this new automatic transmission, the world's newest, offers better performance and economy than any other similar device. Ten years of research and development, plus over a million miles of speedway and Alpine mountain road tests by Daimler-Benz engineers have gone into this transmission which combines sports car performance with automatic speed changes," Reese said.

Women drivers testing the Mercedes' automatic say it provides effortless driving assistance at little reduction in fuel economy. Laboratory technicians report that gasoline for 10,000 miles of automatic driving would cost the Mercedes owner about $7.50 more than 10,000 miles of gear shifting.

Unlike some automatic transsions, the Mercedes-Benz unit allows an emergency push-start, should it ever become necessary.

Performance enthusiasts can use the steering column lever to "hand-shift" Mercedes' automatic. They can obtain acceleration figures that approximate the potential of a well shifted manual gearbox, Reese said.

Driver selection of transmission gears allows holding low ranges to obtain maximum engine power on climbing and curving roads. Many Mercedes-Benz drivers run their automatic in "Third" which prevents it from shifting and provides additional quiet power for mountain traveling. It is estimated that if tires would maintain traction, a Mercedes-Benz 300SE sedan, with the automatic transmission, could climb an 80 percent grade (nearly straight up) using the automatic's "First" gear.

In testing the car from a standing-start, with the accelerator pedal applied to a kick-down position, the transmission automatically begins in "First" which provides lightning-like acceleration near the limits of tire adhesion. Depending on car speed, the transmission can be easily ordered (by pressure on the throttle) to select the next lowest "kick-down" gear for safe passing ability.

Other features of the Mercedes-Benz automatic include: A modified fluid coupling to reduce power noise and vibration and an oil cooler, in the radiator, to keep transmission fluid at the most desirable temperature for long life.

Elimination of Mercedes-Benz transmission band adjustments effectively reduces maintenance costs. Tests disclosed that ban wear of the new unit was so slight, they would last the life of the car. This valuable feature of the Mercedes-Benz automatic is allowed by an unusual gear change mechanism which only applies the transmission bands when gear change drums are at rest.

The cycle, which takes place in less than one second, begins as car speed increases. The automatic gets ready to shift to a new gear by gently laying the next higher transmission band against its gear drum; a change that occurs in about one-tenth second. As the gear drum stops, and begins truning in the opposite direction, the band wraps itself around the slowly turning drum. The wrapping action closes a reaction valve which further tightens the band on the now motionless drum to complete the gear change. It is this application of the band, to the nearly stationary drum, which eliminates band wear. The only transmission maintenance is a recommended oil change at 11,400 mile intervals.

Padded roofs in four colors are available as options on the 1963 Cadillac Fleetwood Sixty Special sedan and Coupe de Ville.

A transistorized AM-FM radio is offered as an option on the 1963 Cadillac.

Seat-Belt Council Gives Approval To 68 Products

NEW YORK. — The American Seat Belt Council, formed by a number of manufacturers to set industry standards, has given its seal of approval to 68 auto seat-belt models.

Charles H. Pulley, council president, said the seals were given as a result of a test program conducted by R. W. Hunt Co., Chicago. Under the program, belts, webbing and hardware are tested for compliance with standards set by the Society of Automotive Engineers.

Pulley said belts are tested for tensile strength, loop load, buckle release force, elongation, crocking, light fastness and resistance to abrasion. Models are tested at random, both at retail counters and factory production lines.

The council has published a listing of the 68 approved models, along with their hundreds of trade names and private brand identification numbers, which will be distributed to safety authorities, automotive jobbers and distributors, industry and trade associations, chain-store buyers and other groups interested in the seat-belt program.

Slow Down for Curves

Good drivers, says the California State Automobile Association, reduce their rate of speed before having to negotiate a curve. Then they accelerate gradually to normal while coming out of the curve. Braking on a curve results in many problems — it makes steering more difficult, it lurches passengers about, and it increases the possibilities of skidding or rolling

Rams Dominate All NPL Team

By Garry Niver

The Westmoor Rams, 1962 North Peninsula League titleholders, topped the balloting at the North Peninsula Sportswriters Association's All League selection meeting in Westlake last week.

Four of Coach Pete Matisi's champs were accorded first team honors by a polling of the scribes from the Westlake Times, Westlake Post, the South San Francisco Enterprise-Journal and the Pacifica Tribune. Elected to the coveted first team from the hilltop campus were end Steve Schmuck, guard Tony Thomas, halfback Mike DeBernardi and quarterback Bruce Hix.

Schmuck, who was a 1961 all league selection in the now defunct Peninsula League, took the top honors by being named 1962 NPL "Player of The Year."

Floyd Gonella, the affable mentor from runner-up Terra Nova, was named "Coach of The Year." The coastside coach, who led his tigers to a remarkable 4-4 record after losing all his games in 1961, won over Westmoor's Pete Matisi in a close voting race.

The Jefferson Indians placed two men on the first group. End Rich Waller, a second team all League selection last year, and center Daryl Crist, were the two Indians to make the team.

Terra Nova, besides having the coach of the year, also put three men on the mythical dream eleven. Heading the list of Tigers was Dennis Caruthers, followed by tackle Roger Mull and guard Dan Gertry.

South San Francisco's Butch Viat and Jim Shutz rounded out the All League eleven. Viat held forth at tackle while Shutz performed at halfback.

Schmuck was one of the finest ends to grace the Peninsula in recent years. The slender youngster possessed good hands and had tricky moves. Last year he topped the loop in pass receiving and he repeated this year, snagging 22 passes for 340 yards and three touchdowns. His high point of the season was a fourteen yard bullet pulled down in the final minute to beat South SF.

The 165 pound Schmuck was also a member of Westmoor's famed "Green Machine" defensive, which allowed the Rams to sweep through seven of nine opponents.

Enough can't be said about DeBernardi. Although he only weighed 147 pounds, the little speedster churned for 601 yards in 115 carries for a bristling 5.2 average per carry. And all of it was not easy to come by. The hard-driving youth piled up much of his yardage on power slants up the middle. DeBernardi also caught ten passes to rank third in pass receiving for the Rams.

Tony Thomas, although given little recognition at the first of the season, turned out to be the anchor for the Ram defense. The 185 pound guard was one of the most feared in the entire league. The youth traveled both ways, playing both offense and defense.

Bruce Hix, the Rams' stocky quarterback, won out narrowly over Terra Nova's signal-caller Manuel Pick. Hix, an All PL baseball player in his sophomore year, will perhaps develop into the finest quarterback ever to come out of the Peninsula. This year, in his first starting role at the position, the junior signal-caller threw for 937 yards. He completed 55 aerials out of 118 atempts and threw for 12 touchdowns.

The smooth-throwing lad can roll out to either side and pass on the dead run. He also rushed well for the Rams, ending up fourth in Westmoor running statistics. Hix was the only junior named to this year's all League team.

Waller and Crist performed steady all season for coach Joe McGrath and their selection came as no surprise. The sticky-fingered Waller was the Indian's bread-and-butter man when they needed him, and also performed yeoman duty on defense for the third place Indians.

Crist, the rough and rugged center who refused to let the South SF backs go up his slot in the final "Big Game," was the Indians' co-captain this year. The 210 pound youth won out over Westmoor's Mike Pignataro.

Dennis Caruthers, the Terra Nova co-captain, was one of the outstanding all-around players in the league this year. The 175 pound youth was the second leading ground gainer for Terra Nova, the leading pass-receiver and paced the Tigers on defense.

Dan Gentry was considered by many, including other preps who played against him, as being the toughest defensive lineman in the league. The 185 pound guard was a two-year standout for the Tigers.

Roger Mull was a newcomer to the Terra Nova scene. The 230 pound tackle went both ways for the Tigers.

Jim Shutz and Butch Viat were the team leaders for Coach Ray DeLong's Warriors. Shutz was the Warriors top ground gainer and also played in the defensive secondary. Viat played both offense and defense at tackle, and did the punting for SSF.

The Warriors also placed four men on the second team. End Rich McDonald, guard Gary Iacini, halfback Bob Szehner and tackle Gary Rebholtz all made second team.

El Camino's neophyte Colts placed two men on the second team. All around halfback Walt Harris and guard Ernie Tressitte made it from coach Tom McCormick's eleven. They were the only juniors on the second team. Out of the 22 men named, only three will be back next year—the former two and Hix from Westmoor.

The voting was close in many instances. Both Pick and Mason of Terra Nova narrowly missed making the top team. Westmoor's Bob Hanson and Mike Piganataro were also in the running for the top team, as were South SF's Gary Iacini and Bob Szehner.

It seems like every year the teams get harder to pick, and this year was no exception. The writers pooled their information and presented statistics to arrive at the team.

With all of the hustle and bustle and smiling faces prevalent at the Champion Speed Shop in South SF last Friday, it was evident that something other than just the holiday season had arrived.

For you auto racing novices, the Champion Speed Shop on Old Mission Road, just across the line from Colma off El Camino, is the home of the World's Fastest Chevrolet dragster.

Don Smith and Jim McClennan, the affable owners of the speed equipment shop, also run the Half Moon Bay and Cotati dragstrips.

Further investigation bore out our intuitive premonition. Deep in the back shop, amidst heavy grease, strewn parts and blown super-charged dragster engines, a group of men worked feverishly about a gleaming dragster chasis and a big, hulking engine. This seemed to be the center of activity and conversation.

The chasis was easily recognizable. It was that of the Champion Speed Shop Special, which is the number two ranked dragster in the United States. The engine was an East Bay import, the Masters and Richter supercharged blown Chrysler mill, which holds the current world speed record in the quarter mile, having topped 139 mph seven weekends in a row at various strips in the country.

JIM McCLENNAN
. . . Record Breaker

The transition which was taking place was that of placing the Master and Richter engine in the streamlin Champion Chasis. Optimism and enthusiasm filled the oil tinged air as the men installed the dark sleeping dynamo onto the frame.

"There is no doubt in our minds that this revision, placing one of the nation's fastest engines in this chasis, will result in a new world's record," said the proud McClennan. McClennan is the builder of the Champion auto and one of the foremost drag racing authorities on the West Coast.

To further enhance the prospect of putting together one of the fastest cars ever known to man, the group has procured the services of Kent Fuller from Studio City, California, the top-rated chasis expert on the West Coast. The duo of McClellan and Fuller, along with ace Master and Richter pilot, Bob Haines, have hopes of perfecting the first dragster which will exceed the 190 mph speed limit consistently.

And they aren't basing their theories on pipe dreams. "This engine is 465 cubic inches, while our chevvy was just 342 inches," said McClennan. "This, added to the fact that our chasis is 200 pounds lighter than the M and R chassis, gives us the firm belief that we will top all existing records," McClennan added.

The trio's hopes of establishing new world's records took a step into realism Sunday when Haines battered the Half Moon Bay record with a 192.30 clocking the first time out. All involved are anticipating the top run-off with champion Don Garlits some time later this season at Half Moon Bay.

"If all goes well with the car, we hope to get the national Champ Don Garlits of Florida to come out here and give us a challenge appearance in the near future," the optimistic Smith vociferated.

The Champion Speed Shop Master and Richter Special runs on nitro-methane fuel. "What few people realize is that the great power which these dragsters get is from the supercharger, which is the same kind which Greyhound buses use," said Smith.

The super-charged dragsters, such as the one Champion has, come equipped with parachutes for stopping. When the sleek speedsters roll down the asphalt strip past the finish line, the chute opens and brings them to a halt—usually some 600 feet beyond the finish line.

The new dragster is estimated to cost $6000. However, this does not include the infinite amount of hours of work and toil which dedicated men like McClen-

Grapplers To Test Chabot College

After tuning up against the Stanford frosh on Tuesday, College of San Mateo wrestlers begin Golden Gate conference competition Friday night at new, but strong, Chabot college of San Leandro.

The Gladiators are expected to battle CSM, Foothill, and Diablo Valley for the Golden Gate crown since, as Chabot coach Bob Thompson puts it, "We draw from one of the best wrestling areas in the State."

San Mateo, in its first year of the sport last season, produced two state junior college champions. Both, however, came from the East Bay—the area Chabot now services.

California JC 137 pound champion Mike Ruiz, from Tennyson high in Hayward, returns to lead Herb Hudson's Bulldogs this year although 115 pound titlist Jeff Cuevas of Union City did not come back.

OLPH Twisters Top Colts 32-0

The PAL Vikings downed the Holy Angel Colts 32-0, and the OLPH Twisters crushed PAL Foresters 21-0 in the final 6th grade league action. The Vikings with a 6-0 record will meet the second place Twisters, 3 and 3, in a play-off game Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at Westlake Park.

Ron Hackett figured in the Vikings war this week. Hackett passed to Dave Hecdor for a ten yard TD then ran for the PAT. Steve Kirby then hit Hackett for an 11 yard TD. Hackett again ran for the PAT. Tom Belvin was next to receive a 30 yard TD bomb from Hackett. Hoe March passed to Hackett for a 15 yd TD and the final score came when Hackett slipped a short aerial to Steve Kirby for six points.

Mike Gugliemoni gave his arm a workout as his OLPH Twisters romped over the Foresters. Gugliemoni hit Frank Guidice with a 35 yard pass for the first TD. Next he passed to Jim Lujan and Lujan rambled 45 yards to a TD. Final score saw Ed Schweitzer grab Gugliemoni's 20 yard aerial for second place in the 6th grade league.

The PAL Rams completed their season with a perfect 26-0 record, downing Holy Angels Falcons 44-0. Jeff Long started the scoring by intercepting a Falcon aerial and running it back 40 yards for a TD. Monte Consani then picked off another Falcon pass and scooted 30 yards for the 2nd TD. Ken Smith flipped a 25 yard pass to Jeff Long for a 3rd score. Ken Smith ran over the fourth score. Mark DeBernardi pulled in a Smith pass for the fifth score for a 31-0 add. Then Smith hit DeBernardi again for the sixth TD. The fourth quarter saw Smith toss to DeBernardi for the final TD.

The PAL Bears up-ended the OLPH Hilltoppers 33-12. Bobby Nolan opened the game with a spectacular 60 yard TD run. Next he hit Joe Proctor for a 15 yard TD. Nolan then hit Ron Caserza for the PAT after a 15 yard penalty. The Hilltoppers struck back with a 60 yard bomb. Dennis Smith deflected a pass into the hands of teammate Steve Howe who carried it over for a Bear score. Nolan hit Grady Proctor.

SAN FRANCISCO STATE basketball coach Paul Rundell (center) goes over the Daly City basketball clinic plans with Charles Vincent, Daly City director of recreation, and Mayor Joe Verducci, athletic director at San Francisco State. The clinic for Daly City boys will be held at Westmoor High School on Saturday, December 8, at 1 p.m.

S. F. STATE CAGERS TO PRESENT CLINIC AT WESTMOOR HIGH

The San Francisco State College varsity basketball team will come to Daly City on December 8 at 1 p. m. to teach youngsters in the community the finer points of basketball in a clinic at Westmoor High School.

Mayor Joe Verducci, director of athletics at San Francisco State; Paul Rundell, varsity coach at the college, and Charles Vincent, director of recreation in Daly City, recently met and completed arrangements for this new type of clinic, designed especially for boys from 8 to 14 years of age.

The clinic will differ from those held in the past in that they stressed the demonstration aspect of the skills of basketball. The S. F. State clinic will stress teaching the skills such as shooting, passing, faking, etc. It has also been planned to give the youngsters enough opportunity to practice the skills as they are taught and corrected by the varsity players.

Technical arrangements and format of the clinic are being developed by Terry Stogner and Jim Cannon, physical education majors at San Francisco State. Weather permiting, they hope to have 20 backboards devoted to various skills.

Both the men's and women's gyms will be utilized in addition to the outdoor courts, if possible. Special atention will be given to teaching the youngsters what constitutes a foul in the game.

The children of the community will not only see how the skills are performed by experts but also get a chance to practice under the skilled eye of a varsity player.

SEA BOWL NEWS

Wishing on a star worked for the Stardusters' California Trophy team. They are in first place by 2½ games. Sun Valley Dairy is hoofing it second by one game.

A thank you to Louis Moore's 500 series and Barbara Paquette's high scoring, which put Linda Mar Liquors in thlird, tying with Ye Olde Surf Lounge.

Smashing Kitty Bonner converted the what? — 3-7-10! (Tom's Peanuts). Just to prove beachcomers aren't always lazy, the Beachcombers League had some more first 500 series.

Sam Fox of Linda Mar Cleaners bowled his first 200 league play for a spanking 542. Series (200-175-167) not gathering seashells was John Laird of the Crespi Kids. (Hope they cross Crespi carefully!) with a 211-165-139) for a dandy 515 series.

Well, well, it seems to pay to be a Bonnie lass! Bonnie Gardner took over high game and high series in the not so still Moonshiners — 211 and 541 — that's really taking it, gal!

In the Sea Mariners, Dot Bayard has high series of 463; and it seems Bette Baker met a girl called Maria (Maria Meyer, that is) to tie for second with 440! This league needs a full replacement team (4) due to school "daze" problems. Calling (4) girls—where are you? Fridays, 10 p. m.

Housewives take note! Fred, at the desk, had a hard time convincing a 860 Classic bowler that he couldn't take his open line bowling sheet home. Seems poor papa needed something to convince Mama he really was bowling! So-o-o attention, anonymous!

But to them it is a love and not a duty. They are compensated not in dollars, but in the personal satisfaction of producing another world's record.

Whatever the outcome of this dragster is, we are sure that if there is a perfect dragster to be made in the near future, men like McClennan, Smith and Fuller will make it.

ON THE SIDELINES .... SF State's grid coach Vic Rowen has been selected by the NorCal grid press as the "Coach of The Year." A very fitting tribute for one of the top mentors in football today.

The Junior travel teams started out with a bang last week as the Westlake team in the Peninsula Junior Travel League took all four points, then on Sunday morning the Junior 900 Scratch team won three games from the Bayfair Lanes team in a makeup game. However, Sunday evening they ran into a tough 19th Avenue Bowl team and lost three games.

This increasingly popular speed sport will feature a complete lineup of stock and superstock entries with activities beginning at 8:30 a.m. Eliminations at 12:30 p.m.

Refreshments available at the concession stands with ample parking facilities available. Tickets can be purchased at the gate Sunday morning and children under 12 are admitted free.

Ram Frosh-Soph Gridders Drop Terra Nova, 14-0

Ram Frosh-Soph gridders ended their first season in the new N.P.L. league with a victorious 14-0 finale against coastal rival Terra Nova last week. The win put the Ram pigskinners in a three-way tie for second place with Jeff and El Camino. The three teams, having a 3-2 record, trailed South City's 5-0 record.

Ground gainers John Ednoff and freshman Al Rodriquez each carried the ball to paydirt to post the Ram victory. Speedsters Rodriquez, Ednoff, Brice Sullivan, and Nick Krnich, coupled with a strong defensive effort led by sophomore defensive center Tom Powell, held the Tigers' running game to a mere crawl and kept their passing off-balance all day.

Backs Rodriquez, Sullivan, Ednoff, John Heick and Nick Krnich have been protected all season by Dave Milton, Flip Reade, Mike Johnson, John Glebow, John Price, and Jay Hanson.

Where is the nearest church? Where do I vote? Do we have Civil Defense here? Where is the library? These are only a sample of the many questions asked by new residents who move into the area.

Prepared to answer these questions as well as extend a welcome to new families is Daly City hostess Ramona Birke who calls on approximately sixty families each month.

A personal visit is a warm and friendly way to welcome new residents. Many have come from small towns where a new family in town was quite an event and neighbors rushed over with goodies. In a city that is growing so rapidly everyone is new so neighbors are not as prone to stop by.

Ramona is well suited to welcome the new families because she has lived in the community for a number of years and has worked diligently with many community organizations.

When she calls on the new residents she brings a letter from he mayor, lists of churches and organizations, brochures of city services and facilities and other vital information—a most effective and friendly way to say "Hi Neighbor."

We find our community leader this week another one of those dedicated and modest individuals who wonder "What have I done."

A resident of the area for five years she has devoted many hours to community service. A member of St. Martin's Episcopal Church she began teaching in the Sunday School, and the following year became co-superintendent of the Church School. She worked with the teenage group, acolytes, and was president of St. Mary's guild as well as parish representative to the Diocesan Convention. She is now on the Bishop's Committee and church secretary.

In addition she has served as room mother at Abraham Lincoln, is a member of Girl Scout troop committee and has helped on all community fund drives.

We salute Virginia Kimberley, our community leader of the week! The Kimberley family live at 57 Montclair in Westlake, husband Jack is with Johnson and Higgins insurance brokerage firm, son Mike is a junior at Westmoor and daughter Sheryl is in 6th grade at Columbus.

The Kimberleys are avid sailing enthusiasts and participate in the Lake Merced Sailing Club.

Santa arrived at the White House in downtown San Francisco last Friday and bidding him welcome with a special musical concert was the Westlake Accordian Orchestra under the direction of Armin Oliveras and piano students from Westlake Music Center. They presented two hour concerts of Christmas carols and popular selections before a capacity house in the little theater.

Soloists included: David Erdman, Jimmy Cavaguaro, Giggi Buittitta, Ignacie Ganzales, Lynne Cutcomb, Marianne Kassick, Andy Johnson, Ellen Freeman and Marsha James. Other members of the band were Vicky Garcia, Roberta, Roger and Robert Arrighini.

Off to a flying start is a new Brownie troop of girls from Colma K-6 and Holy Angels schools. Members include Lois Casalnuovo, Claudia Davi, Nancy Estorga, Debra Hobson, Jacqulyn Jardin, Toni Marie Kambeitz, Suzanne Krivy, Catherine Lapachet, Diane Luzzi, Linda Mafrice, Lynn Martin, Deirdre McMullan, Debra Meyer, Rae Ann Moreschini, Colleen Murphy and Linda Tricerri. Mothers assisting include: Leader, Mrs. Louis Casalnuovo, Co-leaders Mrs. Rodger Moreschini and Mrs. Robert Lapachet; Mrs. Louis Tricerri, Mrs. Jerry Murphy, Mrs. Edward Luzzi, Mrs. Sean McMullan, Mrs. John Mafrice, Mrs. Wallace Hobson, Mrs. Jan Jardin, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Tony Kambeitz, Mrs. Joseph Davi and Mrs. Andrew Krivy.

SOCIAL WHIRL: No doubt about it—it is a "swinging time" of the year as social calendars fill up with holiday parties, dances, luncheons.

Neighbors from Serra Highlands will "trip the light fantastic" at a "Glitter Ball" scheduled for this Saturday night at the House of Parties.

The Sunset Room of the Cliff House will be the setting for the annual communion breakfast of Holy Angels Guild on Sunday. Mrs. John Moran is chairman.

Planned for December 8 at Westlake Bowl a fourth anniversary party with a buffet and dance on the schedule.

The annual Christmas dinner of the Pacifica Art Guild will be held on December 10.

Gifts will be exchanged at the annual Christmas party of the Lake Merced Sailing Auxiliary planned for December 12 at the home of President Jean Sorenson.

FASHION HINT: Holiday fashions for moms-to-be are more glamorous than ever this season with brocades, laces, mink trimmed costume suits. Advice from maternity fashion expert Fern Warner to expectant mothers: "When you go to select your holiday dress, try on the one piece and longer tunic as well as the two piece with which you are more familiar. This applies also to sport and casual fashions."

NEWS BRIEFS: Christmas tree coffee cakes, snow man, doll cakes, peppermint filled pinecone trees, party mix—all these goodies will be found at the Holy Angels Guild food sale to be held Dec. 16 at the Parish Hall.

New president of the Guild of Mary's Help Hospital is Mrs. Hunter Duvall.

Congratulations to Major Frank Murphy, 252 Bellhaven, on appointment to Lt. Colonel in the Army.

Have you joined yet? Don't forget the membership drive for the Daly City Friends of The Library is still going on. For more information telephone Mrs. Willis Hawley, WY 2-1509 or President, Mrs. Elsie Garrison, PL 6-3505.

Mother's An Engineer

By Mona Baker

"Mother's an Engineer" was the title of a three page illustrated article in the September 15 issue of "Life" which devoted the issue to the one hundred most important young men and women in the United States. The story told about the work of Maryly Van Leer Peck, a graduate chemical engineer and the only woman employed as project engineer at Rocketdyne Corporation, one of America's top aerospace industries.

Now on leave of absence working for her doctorate from the University of Florida, Mrs. Peck is living in Westlake while her husband, Jordan, is attending the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley where he will graduate next June.

Not only a brilliant engineer the petite and attractive young woman is also the mother of four youngsters. She told us that Blake is in the second grade at Abraham Lincoln, Jordan in the fifth grade at Christopher Columbus, while preschoolers Ellaine and James go to school at Toyland Nursery School in Daly City. The Jordan family also attend St. Martin's Episcopal Church in Westlake.

Daughter of the late Col. Blake R. Van Leer, former president of Georgia Tech, she holds a master's degree from the University of Florida. Her mother who still lives on the Tech campus is also quite prominent in the engineering field and is a graduate architectural engineer from the University of California.

While studying at the University of Florida Mrs. Peck was offered a position at the West Coast aerospace plant. She accepted, the family came west and her husband enrolled at the Berkeley Divinity School.

While at Rocketdyne her project was on basic research on hybrid combustion while the next project will be a computer program to predict the performance of fuel combinations.

In addition to her work in industry she has taught math at East Carolina College, chemistry at Georgia State and chemical engineering at the University of Florida. She is also national vice president of the Society of Women Engineers.

University Women Plan Yule Program

A traditional Mexican LaPosada, in costume, and a 30-voice girls' chorus from Lowell High School, directed by Bernhard Bernard, is the Christmas program planned by the San Francisco branch of the American Association of University Women for Saturday, December 15, at 2 p. m. at the Sarah Dix Hamlin School.

The gala event is under arrangement by the Modern Living Section of the branch, members of which will take part in the LaPosada, a musical reenactment of the seeking of shelter by Mary and Joseph. Following native custom, singers will be dressed in traditional Mexican costumes.

The beautiful setting of the Sarah Dix Hamlin School, at 2120 Broadway in San Francisco, has special significance since it is currently celebrating its 100th anniversary of its founding.

In keeping with the holiday spirit, there will be two civic features of the Christmas party. To benefit the children of Kaiser Hospital's pediatrics ward, the Modern Living section has fashioned decorative corsages and mistletoe to be sold at the tea.

Mrs. Helen Silvius, hospitality chairman, is asking that members bring Christmas cookies, gaily arranged on disposable plates and labeled with the donor's name. As was done last year, cookies in surplus supply will be sent to the Youth Guidance Center.

Presiding at the tea table will be the past presidents of the branch: Miss Gladys Metcalf and Mrs. Leslie Bartow at the punch bow; Mrs. Jean Gantou and Mrs. Ross Rich at the coffee table.

Program participants will be introduced by Mrs. Norman H. Lueck, arts chairman, and will include Mrs. George Simon, vocalist, who will sing to old Christmas songs by Hugo Wolf: "Epithany" and "Wander Sweet Mary." Mrs. Simon resides at 737 Clarinda avenue in Daly City.

Assisting with the decorations is Mrs. Marietta Barron.

More than 100 food elements have been found in milk, including some of all the basic elements everyone must have to grow and maintain good health.

SM Red Cross To Honor International Students

International students studying at the College of San Mateo will be honored at a holiday festival by Peninsula Rotarians, Soroptimists, and Lions Club members on Tuesday, December 11, at the San Mateo Elks Club. International committee of the San Mateo region, American Red Cross, is coordinating plans for the event with members of the International Relations Club of the college, and representatives of the fraternal organizations.

In the past the students have been entertained at private homes, then taken to the Christmas party. This year, according to Miss Ada R. Beveridge and Monroe F. Brown, co-chairmen of the Red Cross International student Committee, the event will be an affair to which the community will be invited.

A social hour will preceed the dinner at 7 p.m., with entertainment following by College of San Mateo students. Howard Durham, college faculty advisor to the international students, is working with Mrs. Ralph Bunje and international committee members on the hospitality phase of the evening.

There will be pre-game activities, also girls of Westmoor in Swedish gymnastics, trampoline, and folk dancing.

Dinner will be served from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. in the Westmoor cafeteria.

Fred Adams is looking forward to seeing many friends and parents of Westmoor students on the evening of Saturday, December 1. Mr. Adams asks that everyone join him in making this event successful. Co-chairmen are Mr. Lewkowitz and Mr. Hedman.

Discards For Goodwill Aid Handicapped Teens

Want to add a handicapped teen-ager to your Christmas list, without spending a penny? Then give your discards to the Goodwill Industries so they can be used to create a job for a disabled student during the holiday season. The number of youngsters to be hired depends entirely on the amount of wooden furniture and small electrical appliances contributed in the next few weeks.

During the last school vacation, in a test program sponsored jointly by The California League for the Handicapped and Goodwill, a group of students between the ages of 14 and 17, signed up to receive work and training in the sheltered workshop. They learned so quickly, were so adaptable and productive, that expansion of the program is now under way.

To keep one student on the job a week requires several tables, desks and bookcases, and for a youngster with a mechanical aptitude twenty to thirty small electrical appliances are needed in the same period.

Although the pilot program consisted of mentally retarded students only, all from Lincoln High School, those from other areas and with other handicaps will now be considered. Interested teen-agers are asked to call Rose Resnick, Executive Director of the League, PRospect 5-4321.

To arrange for a Goodwill pick-up truck call DO 2-0779.

Gloria Moore To Compete For DAR Citizenship Award

Annually, a Westmoor High School senior girl is honored with the Daughters of the American Revolution citizenship award.

This year's recipient, Miss Gloria Moore, was first nominated by the senior girls themselves. The final choice, however, was left to the faculty whose decision was based on the dependability, leadership, service, patriotism, and scholastic record of the nominees.

In district competition on December 8, Gloria, and other high school winners, will be given a test concerning the history and constitution of the United States. The girl who achieves the highest score on the test will then write an essay, again with the United States as the topic. The purpose of this is to determine the state winner.

Gloria, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Moore, 27 Oceanside drive, is not only a member of California Scholarship Foundation, but also was school treasurer in her junior year and is presently a varsity cheerleader.

Nursery School Asks For Funds

The parents of the non-profit Village Cooperative Nursery School will have a very busy holiday season this year.

The mothers are collecting clothing and other items that could find an eager buyer, for a rummage sale to be held at 2140 Sutter street, December 3 and 4 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Reason for this activity is that an emergency fund raising is needed for a new location.

For the past 12 years the Village Cooperative Nursery School was housed in the historic old community center on Dunk street in Colma. Any day now the building will be demolished to make way for the planned Junipero Serra freeway. A few months ago the Daly City Council offered temporary quarters to prevent the dissolution of this school—the only kind in this area, which has provided many hours of play and creative activities for preschoolers.

In the meantime the school was able with the cooperation of its members to raise enough funds for the down payment for a new location—located at 474 N. Parkview in Daly City.

At present all the fathers are working nights and weekends to make this school suitable to the required standards of a nursery school.

Funds are at a low ebb. Therefore the school has had to ask for donations of lumber and various supplies from local businesses for which we want to express appreciation.

Lumber has been donated by Big Bear Lumber Company, 3101 Junipero Serra; White Lumber Company, 1917 Junipero Serra boulevard; Broadmoor Lumber company, 2295 Junipero Serra boulevard and A. L. Stockton, 6100 Mission street.

Many others have donated labor and professional skill.

Local Highway Patrol Needs X-ing Guards

California Highway Patrol, 525 Veterans boulevard, Redwood City, is taking applications for school crossing guards in the Colma area. The pay is $1.75 per hour, with periodic increases to $1.85. Contact Mrs. Stark at EMerson 6-5741. Male or female applications are acceptable.

YWCA Fashion Models Chosen For Luncheon

Models for the next YWCA "Thursday Girl" fashion show luncheon, to be held on December 6 at the Westlake Bowl, have been announced by co-fashion coordinators Mrs. Edward Odenthal of Daly City and Mrs. Michael Orlich of Garden Village.

Among those showing off fashions by Jay Vee and Junior Boot Shop of Westlake Shopping Center will be Mrs. David Sweat of South San Francisco, Mesdames S. L. Salvato and Daniel Erlach of San Francisco, and Mesdames Harold Fox, Charles Schwab, Robert Madsen, Norman Tauber, James Wyatt and Paul Dab of Daly City.

Also Mrs. John Garner of San Bruno, Mrs. John O'Connor of San Francisco, and Mrs. Richard Wilson of San Francisco. Child models will be Miss Angela Salvato of 442 Brazil, San Francisco, and Miss Lynette Thompson of 78 Edgmont, Daly City.

Chairman of the Christmas show is Mrs. R. L. Miller of Daly City, who described the event as an annual holiday fete called "Christmas Fashions on the Lanes." Party clothes and sportswear from Jay Vee will be featured on the bowling lanes, accompanied by a festive holiday luncheon.

Tickets for the affair are $2, which includes baby-sitting service. Advance reservations are required, and may be made at the Y Office, 375 South Mayfair, Daly City, or by telephoning PL 6-7370.

Hostesses for the 1 to 3 p.m. fashion show luncheon will be Mesdames Edward Raymond and Dean DeWitt of Daly City.

Retarded Kiddies Christmas Party

The Peninsula Association for Retarded Children is sponsoring the Annual Christmas Party for Mentally Retarded Children, their families and friends on Monday, December 17, at 7:30 p.m. at the Veterans' Memorial Building in Redwood City.

The planned program includes: Miss Santa, Miss Janice Larrabee, 18-year-old counselor from the Day Camp and Snow Program for Handicapped Children, will present candy gifts; decorating the large Christmas tree with decorations made by the children; dancing, singing and refreshments.

The Self-Help School PTA and the Ch-Te-Pa organization are assisting with the program. The volunteer counselors of the handicapped programs are assisting in hosting.

Journalist To Speak At Lecture Series

Controversial reporter and lecturer William Worthy, who has covered South Africa, Red China and Cuba, will make a speaking appearance on the San Francisco State College lecture series on Tuesday, December 11, while on a talking tour in the Bay Area. Worthy will appear in the main auditorium at 1 p.m. with the general public invited, free of admission.

Worthy has a vivid journalistic career. A graduate of Bates College in Lewiston, Maine, and a Nieman Fellow in Journalism at Harvard, he has been a correspondent for CBS in Moscow and South Africa. He was one of the first United States newsmen to report from inside Red China.

More recently, Worthy, covering Cuba for the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, was indicted and sentenced for returning to the United States without a passport. He is now free on bond.

Worthy was a recent speaker on the campus at the University of California in Los Angeles. His topic will be: "A Free Press and the Cold War."

MISS HELENA FRISELL (second from right), foreign exchange student from Stockholm, Sweden, now attending Westmoor High School, was presented to the ladies of the community recently at a tea in Daly City. County Reaches 94% of Goal

San Mateo United Crusade

San Mateo County volunteers working for the United Crusade have put on a monumental push during the past several weeks and put the San Mateo Crusade up to 94.3 per cent of the goal, it was reported at the Crusade's final report meeting.

Speaking before over a hundred key volunteers at the Thunderbird Hotel in Millbrae, campaign chairman Webb Witmer declared that he was confident that the Crusade would reach its local goal of $635,579 during the next few weeks.

"There is still a lot of work to do," he said. "The public phase of our campaign ended November 16, but we are not going to stop working until every penny that is available to us is in."

In the two weeks since the last report meeting, San Mateo volunteers almost doubled the amount of contributions reported in. At that time, November 1st, there was a total of $35,620 reported, after 6 weeks of campaigning, while yesterday they reported additional contributions of $263,950 raised during the past two weeks.

Two of the campaign divisions reported that they were already above 100% of their goal, with more money still due to come in.

They are the Education division, under Mark Erickson, which reported $29,418 for 111.4% of goal, and the Public Employees divisions, under the joint chairmanship of Don Wilson and Karl Baldwin, which reported $21,714 for 101.0% of goal.

The massive Commerce and Industry division under John Durand, which accounts for the largest single piece of campaign funds, revealed collections to date of $342,014 or 94.7% of goal, and Durand said he was confident the Division would go over the top in the next fortnight.

The second largest campaign division from the standpoint of money raised,—and the largest in the number of volunteers involved, was the Residential division. Its co-chairmen, Mrs. Charles M. Gray and Mrs. Edmund T. King, II, reported the Division was now at 91.2% of goal with collections of $162,283.

The Professional Division, under the direction of Judge Frank Comaich, reported collections of $26,484 or 88.1% of goal from: social agencies, physicians, dentists and lawyers in the County.

And the Business Division, which solicits small commercial firms in the County has collected $17,912 for 77.2% of goal so far, it was reported at the meeting by Eugene Molay, division chairman.

All division chairmen emphasized that their work was not yet over, and that they would go on with solicitations until every person and group within their field of responsibility had been given an opportunity to contribute to this great community effort.

Pack 248 Shows Pioneering Spirit

Cub Scout Pack 248 met at Fernando Rivera School Thursday, November 15, for its third meeting of the season. A record atendance of Cubs and parents watched the Flag Ceremony as performed by Den 3. Participating in the ceremony was Ronald Hipschman, who led the Pledge of Allegiance in which the parents joined the pack. Bennett Friedmann gave the Cub Promise, and Joel Weinberg, the law of the pack.

Following the Flag Ceremony, Cubmaster James Vick inspected the dens, reminding the pack that to be considered eligible for the inspection award, neatness and not newness of uniform was the deciding factor. Den7 won this award, and the perfect parent atendance award was given to Den 9 which tied with Den 3, last month's winner.

A humorous skit, which portrayed a typical Thanksgiving featst, was presented by Den 2. Featured in the cast were George Rally, Priscilla; Curtis Blake, Miles Standish; Harold Minkin, John; and as friendly Indians, Edward Sturdevant, Nick Lucas and Raymond Graf.

The dens showed their exhibits for the month. The November theme was Buckskin Pioneers, and the displays made by the boys under the direction of their den mothers, carried out the theme with creativity and imagination. Among the exhibits wre paper mache masks, log cabins complete with miniature pioneers, a mural depicting a siege at one of the early forts, a scale log cabin and garden with real plants, and other displays of interest.

Assistant Cubmaster Lee Faulkner presided over the pack meeting awards. Receiving their achievement badges were Alan Bauer, one year pin and gold and silver arrows; Harold Minkin, gold arrow; Mike Stevenson, Webelos arrow; Charles Traversy, gold arrow; Bruce Faulkner, gold arrow; Richard Goldstein, two year pin and silver arrow. In addition, all of the new Cubs received their Council Emblem Patch.

Chairman Alfred Dolotz informed the pack that a field trip to the Presidio has been planned for Jan. 10, 1963. There Kwill be more about this at the December meeting at which time a complete report of the Fall dance, held Saturday, November 10, at the Broadmoor Community Center, will be made. A profit of at least $200 is expected. Wanda Souza was the chairman of the event.

The Cubs each brought to the meeting a can of food as his contribution to the pack's annual Thanksgiving donation of food. Dr. Sanford Marcus, registration chairman, is in charge of the program and the donation is made through the Chamber of Commerce of Daly City which selects a needy family as the recipient.

The meeting adjourned at 9 p. m. following a Living Circle made by all the Cubs as they gathered around the American Flag and the Emblem of the Pack.

A. Lincoln Students Make A Huge Globe

The fourth-fifth grade class of Abraham Lincoln, Mrs. Joan Williams, teacher, has produced a huge globe in their classroom in connection with their social studies unit on "Our World Today." From the bare wire outline of the globe, the pupils have paper mached it, filled in the latitude and longitude lines, covered it with asbestos and painted in the ocean areas, the mountain elevations and the land masses of the world of 1962.

On display now in Room 17 is the colorful "World of Today."

On Thursday, November 8, the class presented a play to the other fourth and fifth grades of Abraham Lincoln. The characters in the performance were: Prime Meridian, Kurt Heider; Mother, Debra Broner; Announcer, Jeannine Kite; Willie, William Wetcher; Clyde, Clyde Noel; Tim, Timothy Ryan; Stage Hand, William Payne; North America, Bob Poulin, Alan Hoffman, Bob Payne and Eddie Jestadt; South America, Maria Gonzales, Barbara Anderson and Elena Grijalua; Asia, Tina Herbert, Dorit Papelbaum, Pamela Miller and Beverly Hoffman; Antarctica, Donald Lueder, Harold Faulkner and Neil Goldman; Africa, Brian Myers, Sherri Matthews, Daniel Crosbie, Lucy Palangian and Guy Kerr; Europe, Denise Martinez, Dianne Porter and Penny Vouchilas; Oceania, Yvonne Webster, Elaine Lubbe and Julianna Klemm.

Stock Exchange Visit

The fifth-graders in Mrs. Nyhan's class visited the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange in San Francisco, Tuesday, November 20. This trip was in connection with a math project on graph reading. The children had each "bought" a stock of their choice and plotted it over a period of weeks on a graph. The trip was real exciting. The busy floor of the stock exchange, the ticker tape and the I.B.M. department were all viewed with awe.

Vista Mar School

Vista Mar was host to a seminar of student teachers for Mrs. Elaine Barnes, who is supervisor at San Francisco State College. Mrs. Barnes brought her class to Vista Mar for them to observe room environment and school "aura," which she feels is an integral part in the learning of children. The group met in the multi-use room and were instructed in the processes and procedures and "things to look for." They were also given excerpts of units and anticipated outcomes from the new social science framework, as well as graded copies of the basic and supplementary state readers. After dividing into groups, they visited in the rooms of the buildings.

They reassembled in the multi-use room to enjoy coffee and cookies and Mrs. Barnes asked the principal, Miss Marjorie Tobias, to talk to the group on her own role perception of the principalship and answer questions.

The seminar of students included Mrs. Cleo Noraga, Miss Maureen Daley and Mrs. Deanna Monasch, who have been student teachers at Vista Mar for the last nine weeks working under the guidance of resident teachers Miss Margaret Dwyer, Miss Mary Helen Monroe, and Mrs. Paula Shepard. Others in the seminar included Kay Antongiovanni, Nina Baumgarten, Cherie Gotthardt, Martha Hanna, Freda Higley, Sandra Hoffmann, Cleo Katsaros, Ethel Kriegsfeld, Beverly O'Connell, Beatrice Roark, Eugenia Sammis and Kay Trent.

Several classes at Vista Mar School have been busy with Junior Red Cross activities. Miss Margaret Dwyer's, Mrs. Jeane Oberlander's, Miss Joan Rudolph's and Mrs. Peggy Christgau's classes have completed Thanksgiving tray mats for the local hospitals. These mats were colorfully decorated with turkeys, pilgrims and cornucopias. These "original" mats will serve as a cheerful addition to the patient's Thanksgiving trays.

Directly after Thanksgiving, classes at Vista Mar School will be filling Junior Red Cross gift boxes for children less fortunate than they who live in far-away lands.

Puppet Show at Vista Mar School

"Punch's Adventures in Turkey," a puppet show, will be held Saturday, December 1, at 1 p.m., in the multi-purpose room of the Vista Mar School.

The program is sponsored by the Vista Mar PTA and tickets may be purchased at the door for 50 cents.

John Ballan's Little Theatre is presenting the program, which will also feature a discussion on how to build one's own puppets.

L.S.E.A. Teachers Selected By District

Recent district-wide elections produced the following Laguna Salada Union School District winners, as announced by the Election Committee:

1. Roderick Linhares, Pacific Manor teacher, as Bay Section C.T.A. Council Representative.
2. Mrs. Margaret Brant, Pacific Manor teacher, as Classroom Department of the N.E.A. (National Education Association) Representative.
3. William Kanellis, Ortega teacher, as junior member of the L.S.E.A. Board of Directors.

Edison Faculty Defeats All-Stars

It took the combined efforts of the Thomas Edison teachers, school principal Harry Aronson, and the superintendent of schools, Richard Foster, to defeat the student all-star team, 8-7, in a closely fought softball contest.

The game was the highlight of the intramural softball program directed by Bruce Russell, sixth-grade teacher.

The student team was selected by class sports representatives for all the fifth and sixth grades, based on their performance in the school league.

The faculty team was represented by former stars, a little faded perhaps, but with enough glitter remaining to dazzle the youngsters with their batting performance.

The entire school body turned out at 2:30 to enjoy the spectacle. Sentiment among the spectators appeared to be divided. The little ones cheered the teachers on, while the older girls and boys encouraged their champions to subdue the ancient opposition.

The children seemed delighted to watch their superintendent, principal and their teachers toss aside the serious part of education for the moment and participate in the fun, laughter and thrills of the playing field.

All in all, the affair was a splendid example of the friendliness, warmth and enjoyment which faculty and students can share on the "middle ground."

Team line-ups were:

Pedro Valley

A demonstration entitled "How Children Learn to Read" was given last week for Pedro Valley PTA.

Participating in the program were teachers and children from grades one, two and three. Miss Mae McCarthy, curriculum consultant for Laguna Salada School District, introduced the program and furnished information regarding methods being used in the classrooms.

With children on stage in a classroom situation, it was shown how reading is developed through books and charts, and how the child's interest and knowledge is expanded in the first three years of school following Kindergarten.

Mr. George Cross, teacher and counselor at Terra Nova High School, showed how the results of the elementary reading program affect the child when he reaches high school. He pointed out that poor reading habits can seriously handicap the high school student to the point where he drops out of school before earning a diploma and he offered suggestions to parents to avoid this problem.

A display table showed texts and library books as well as supplementary material being used in the schools. The colors were presented by Cub Scout Pack 254.

'Miss Snow White' Hit At Vista Mar School

The students in Miss Susan Shaffer's second-grade class are very happy to have Mrs. Snow White safely in their room. Each weekend and over the holidays, one student, who has parental permission, takes the hamster home. Lucky is Mrs. Snow White, because she often returns with new things to make her life more comfortable. Her new feeding box is a cottage cheese carton, and she does get a clean cage every weekend, at least!

The class has been studying the earth. It is quite interesting to draw a chalk line on the patio where the shadow of the building falls. Then an hour or so later, upon careful observation, it is discovered that the shadow has moved. The earth really does turn!

In Social Studies, they have been studying maps and jobs in the community. Time out was taken to learn about Thanksgiving and its significance. The children made their own Thanksgiving booklets.

Mrs. Susan Burney and her fourth-grade class traveled to the Oakland Public Museum recently. At the museum they learned more about the California Indians, whom they have been studying. During the visit, Mike Di Puma and Judy Williams were models for Indian clothes. This was not only a surprise for the class, but also for Judy and Mike. The class ate lunch beside Lake Merritt and then returned to Daly City.

Mrs. Marcha Zusman and Mrs. Paula Shepard and their two classes went to the Farmers' Market. The field trip was part of their study of food and how it eventually gets to the family.

Group Conference

The sixth and last Parent-Teacher group conference for Kindergarten B, Abraham Lincoln, for the year, was held on Tuesday afternoon, November 13, at the home of Mrs. Bert Thomas. Mrs. Kay Bollendonk, teacher, consulted with the following parents: Mrs. Richard Pearl, Mrs. Peter Picciau, Mrs. Robert Potts, Mrs. Robert Rodrigo, Mrs. Philip Ruttenberg, Mrs. Frank Spitaleri, Mrs. Charles Stock, Mrs. Robert Tarantino, Mrs. Paul Thayer and Mrs. Richard Vladyka.

Between 1853 and 1870, Snowshoe Thomson spent his winters skiing over the Sierra between the Mother Lode country and eastern Nevada supplying miners with mail, medicine and urgent necessities.

Terra Nova Students Enjoy "Spirit Week"

By Betsy Morrison

Terra Nova High School held "Spirit Week" November 13-16. It started Tuesday with "Crazy Day." The seniors sported crazy hats, the juniors donned clothes of crazy colors to support their class, and the sophomores wore crazy shirts and the freshmen came up with goofy sock styles.

Wednesday was "Hush Day." On Tuesday every boy obtained two blue cards and every girl two pink ones. The next day we were not allowed to talk to the opposite sex. But, if a girl could get a boy to talk to her, or vice-versa, the person who talked had to hand over a hush card. At the end of the day all cards were turned in and signed and the boy and the girl who obtained the most cards were proclaimed "Mr. and Miss Irresistable."

Thursday all hands were on deck, decked out as shipwrecked sailors and passengers for "Shipwreck Day."

Friday was "Color Day" and for this all classes patriotic, seniors wearing all white, juniors, black; sophomores, gold; and freshmen wearing red. There was a rally with class competition and skits. The winner of the Spirit Plaque was the seniors again.

Tuesday, November 13, was also Youth in Government Day for Pacifica. On the day, people from Terra Nova and Oceana High Schools took over the city government for a day and were hosted at a dinner at Nick's by the Pacifica Rotary Club. The leading people were: Mayor, Bob Hernandez, and Vice-Mayor, Merilyn Monin.

Westmoor Gals and Dads Hold Annual Play Night

Westmoor High School dads and daughters met in the boys' gym for the annual G. A. A. Father-Daughter Fun Night November 15, in an attempt to remove extra bulges from two generations at one time.

Greeted by P. E. instructors Misses Carolyn Ames, Sally Clark, Dorene Keith, and Shirley Minaker at 7:30 p.m., the guests were "tagged" so that everyone had an opportunity to get acquainted.

Jazz and the Charleston were first on the agenda as a group of 28 modern dance students performed to "The Way You Look Tonight" and "Goofus." Next were demonstrations in Swedish gymnastics, featuring beginners with balls and more advanced performers with balls and ropes. Balls bounced to the tune of "A Summer Place," and the ropes swayed to the rhythm of "Peter Gunn."

Active and energetic competition followed as the ladies and their escorts participated in badminton, volleyball, trampoline, and ping-pong. Refreshments—coffee, grape juice, and doughnuts—at 9 p.m. concluded the evening's activities.

The few fathers who weren't too out of breath to talk expressed delight at the evening's workout. Jack Bromley claimed, "I've lost at least three pounds!" Declared Fred Adams, "This evening has really made me work." Speaking for all was Sidney Ogin, who offered a terse, one-word summation: "Yippee!"

Westmoor Grad Wins Nursing School Honor

Karen Williams, 1959 Westmoor High School graduate, was awarded honors at graduation from St. Luke's Nursing School, San Francisco. Out of a senior class of 23 at St. Luke's, Karen graduated with top honors.

Receiving her nursing diploma culminates her years of work at high school and nursing school. At Westmoor Karen was a member of the California Scholarship Federation, the school's honor society.

Under the guidance of Westmoor's biology and physiology teacher, Mr. Carl Kaufeldt, Karen undertook a physiology project using rates as "guinea pigs." She studied the concentration of hemoglobin in relationship to body nutrition in her own homemade lab. Through this project Karen received a commendation from the San Mateo Heart Association.

Outstanding to teachers was the fact that Karen had the incentive and initiative to organize and carry out efficiently her complex project with little adult supervision. "Out of every hundred students, you may meet one like Karen," commented Mr. Kaufeldt.

Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Williams, 299 Bel Mar Avenue, Daly City.

DC Teeners To Host Area Youth Council

The Youth Activities Program of the Daly City Recreation Department will host the next meeting of the Northern California Youth Council's Constitution Revision Committee, scheduled for Saturday, December 8, in the Coral Room of the War Memorial Community Center.

Darryl Crist, Judie M. Reed and Cece Murrish along with Alam Boyd, supervisor of Youth Activities, are serving as the Host Committee for this third in a series of meetings. The first two meetings were held in Castro Valley under the auspices of the Hayward Area Recreation District. Representatives from Hayward, Alameda, Oakland, Concord, Richmond, San Mateo, San Jose and Parkmerced are expected to attend.

Crist, as Daly City's official youth delegate, will be discussing with the other representatives a revised Northern California Youth Council Constitution based on several proposals as to the reorganization of the entire council.

Executive Youth Council Selects New Members

Over forty prospective candidates for the Executive Council of the Hi Fi Teen Club Council attended an informal party recently at the War Memorial Community Center. The program, under the sponsorship of the Youth Activities Program of the Daly City Recreation Department, was designed to select twenty candidates for membership on the club's Executive Council.

Participants were judged on a number of points as a means of determining the best council candidates. Ron Madariaga, club adviser, and Alan Boyd, Supervisor of Youth Activities, judged the candidates on the following points: Appropriate dress for the evening, personality, attitude, association with others, cooperativeness, manners, leadership, fellowship, follow through, imagination, creativity and initiative.

Activities during the evening in addition to the buffet dinner included mixed games, party planning, active games and dancing. The names of the appointed council members will be released soon and will be from the following club members:

SOPHOMORES — Kay Loeser, Harriet Featherstone, Gail Wyman, Chuck Spencer, Linda Serriani, Joanne Jensen, Joanne Fannuccini, Toni Nemia and Janet Vaznaugh.

Art Philosophy For Westmoor Students

Background in the philosophy of painting has been offered to students of Westmoor High School by the San Francisco Museum of Art. The class enables the art student to gain a better concept of contemporary art.

Westmoor students participating in the November 14 class were Lloyd Caldwell, Calvin Costa, Donna Hutchins, and Roy Ostrowski.

Through the use of paintings, films, slides and other visual materials, the students were shown the two types of communications—art and television. The question discussed that day showed the students how art compared with television.

After going to the class the students from Westmoor took a tour of the British Exhibition titled "Art Today." At the beginning of the week the exhibit had been officially opened by Prince Phillip to help open London week.

Latin American Teachers Speak To Ram Ad Lib Club

Problems and progress in Latin America were discussed in a roundtable discussion Tuesday, November 13, as six teachers from south of the border spoke at Westmoor High to members of the Ad Lib Club, American Field Service, and the Junior Statesmen.

Represented by the four men and two ladies were the countries of Argentina, Bolivia, Mexico, Nicaragua, Paraguay, and Uruguay, Fulbright scholars visiting this country, the panelists are all English teachers in their respective homeland.

The topics touched upon as proposed by panel moderator Mr. Paul Zimmerman included education and textbooks used in the classrooms. Westmoorites were surprised to learn that high school students in Latin America do not choose their courses in a public school. In most of the countries, education is compulsory up to the average age of 13, and many claimed public college opened to all students without restrictions. One problem in education noted as existing in Mexico is the use of faulty history textbooks slanted toward nationalism.

All panelists agreed to a serious lack of correct information via mass communication systems, for they remarked that most of their images of the U. S. come from second-rate movies or from newspapers that play up the unfavorable aspects of our country.

As to the recent blockade of Cuba, the guests were only able to say that most of their governments were in agreement with President Kennedy's action. Communists, they continued, are recognized in most of their countries, although as a minority party they pose no serious threat.

Contrary to public opinion, most of Latin Americans felt that the American companies in their countries were not objectionable, although they believed that their own governments should exert more control over them. The representative from Nicaragua, on the other hand, protested the exploitation of native workers by the American businessmen.

Museum Offers Classes In Art

The San Francisco Museum of Art has beer offering art students in high schools different classes in art. These classes try to give the students background in the philosophy of painting.

Westmoor High School students participating in the November 14 class were: Lloyd Caldwell, Calvin Costa, Donna Hutchins, and Roy Ostrowski.

Through the use of paintings, films, slides, and other visual materials the students were shown two types of communication—art and television. The question discussed that day showed the students how art compared with television.

After going to the class the students from Westmoor took a tour of the British Exhibition titled "Art Today." At the beginning of the week the exhibit had been officially opened by Prince Phillip to help begin London Week.

Daly City Girls Invited to Join New Y-Teen Club

All senior high school girls from Jefferson High and private high schools in Daly City are invited to the next regular meeting of the new Y Teen Club Monday, December 3, at 3:30 p.m. in the War Memorial Building. Major item on the agenda will be the election of officers for the club, and program planning.

A Y-Teen Club is active at Westmoor High School and Westmoor students are invited to join the club there.

Y Teen program offers a chance to belong to an active club with a program of self development, service to the community, and fun.

Advisors for this new group are Miss Debbie Polychronopoulas and Miss Suzanne White, both students at San Francisco State College. Pat Martinez, director of the North San Mateo County YWCA, will also be working with the group.

3 Seniors, 1 Junior Lead Honor Roll At Westmoor High

Leading the Honor Roll at Westmoor for the first quarter were four straight "A" students: seniors Ann Irby, Marguerite Jarchow, and Marilynn Wagner; and junior Jim Fotenos.

Gathering five coveted "A's" were eight freshmen, seven seniors, and four apiece for the sophomores and juniors. High-ranking seniors were Roye Abbott, Charlotte Corvo, Virginia Maches, Gloria Moore, Wayne Phillips, and Eugene Poggio.

Juniors who rated were Denise Jamin, Lynn Jones, Linda Long, and Diana Stipelkovich. Sophomores Katherine Edmison, Nancy Loes, Carl Sikora, and Linda Wallace each received five "A's;" while Timothy Herbert, Rayne Lichtenberg, Marilyn Morgan, Wendy Morrison, Sansa Morse, Julie Richards, Diana Silva, and Deborah Skootsky represented the freshmen.

Total of 16.2% of the student body, or 285 Westmoorites, placed on the Honor Roll. Seniors took the lead with 16.7% attaining a "B" average with no "D's" or "F's." Right behind were the juniors with 16.3% of the class placing; next were the sophs with 16% and the frosh with 15.6%.

Chess League Plans Slated

Westmoor High School Chess club president, Jack Petranker, recently announced plans were being made for the creation of a chess league which would include Mills, El Camino, South San Francisco, and Westmoor high schools.

Tentatively scheduled to become a reality in February, the league would permit competitive games between these schools. Interested Westmoorites will witness the first of the practice matches, December 12.

Actual league games will perhaps result in a perpetual trophy for the champion.

Daly City Man Named Assistant Head Of B of A

John H. Krevis of Daly City, lending officer at Bank of America's Portola district branch, has been promoted to assistant manager of the Manchester Center branch in Fresno, manager Joe Firpo announced this week.

Krevis, who assumes his new duties this week, has been with the bank for 13 years and has spent all but one year at the Portola district and Daly City branches. He was named a general lending officer shortly after moving to the Portola office in 1958 and has held that post for the past four years.

After joining the bank as a teller in 1949, Krevis was assigned to the Excelsior branch in San Francisco for a year, then moved to the Daly City branch as a collection and note teller. Two years later he advanced to junior officer status and, upon transferring to the Portola office, assumed general lending duties.

Active in community affairs, Krevis is a past president of the Portola District Merchants Association and a former treasurer of the Portola District Bass Club.

In Daly City, his membership include the Eagles lodge, the Garden and Rod and Gun clubs, the Holy Name Society, and the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Men's Club.

Krevis and his wife, Betty, have made their home at 282 Woodrow street in Daly City. They have two children.

In no decade since statehood in 1850 has California's population increased less than 21 per cent.

The classes will be held twice weekly on Mondays and Thursdays, starting December 3, from 1 to 3 p. m. Certification will be given to all completing a two and one-half week standard first aid course. Special advanced and instructor courses will be given upon request.

There is no charge except for the standard Red Cross first aid textbook, which is 75 cents. All interested in enrolling in any of the courses should call the Red Cross at PR 6-1500.

Ingleside Homes Association Meet

The annual meeting of the Ingleside Terraces Homes Association will be held on Tuesday, December 4, 8 p.m., at Commodore Sloat School Auditorium, Ocean and Junipero Serra, it was announced by Mr. N. Harris Ades, president.

There are no lengthy speeches planned——just a review of the activities for the past year. Protestant Churches Launch Blanket Drive For Needy Refugees

Thousands of Algerians may freeze to death during the oncoming cold months unless 650,000 blankets are rushed to that strucken country immediately, officials of Church World Service stated after an emergency meeting in New York City.

Hugh D. Farley, executive director of the overseas relief agency of the American Protestant and Orthodox churches, called for an immediate drive for blankets after hearing a report on the desperate plight of the Algerians by Jan Van Hoogstraten, director of CWS activities in Africa.

As the machinery was put into motion for the nationwide blanket drive, church officials declared that 600,000,000 pounds of U. S. surplus wheat will be rushed to Algeria to combat the growing starvation there.

This, it was revealed, will be in addition to more than 11,000,000 pounds of food and other relief supplies already sent as a result of efforts of CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program), S. O. S. (Share Our Surplus) and other relief appeals of the churches.

Churchgoers will contribute to the Share Our Surplus appeal at special services held in churches and communities all over the country during the Thanksgiving week and through activities of the rural overseas program.

Contributors to the blanket drive are asked to also give 25 cents to cover pre-shipment processing costs. Plans are being made for interdenominational collection of blankets in communities throughout the country.

Blankets will also be received at the following Church World Service centers: 637 West 125th Street, New York 27, N. Y.; Nappanee, Ind.; New Windsor, Md.; 4165 Duncan avenue, St. Louis 10, Mo.; 3855 Elm Street, Denver, Colo., and 919 Emerald Ave., Modesto, Calif.

Religious Groups Join Traffic Effort

Traffic accidents and fatalities have reached the point of disastrous proportions in California. During 1961, the record reached 3,368 fatalities, and the tentative totals for this year show no evidence of decline. Offering their assistance and support of a new traffic safety program are the religious leaders of the State.

A. H. Kaiser, district manager in San Mateo county for the National Automobile Club, announced this week that his organization and other interested statewide groups have appealed to the religious leadership of California to participate in this campaign that began on November 17 and is scheduled to run through the New Year holiday.

Members of the clergy have indicated that they will refer to the traffic safety issue in their sermons. A spokesman for a leading California religious group has characterized the new campaign as "one of the most seriously planned efforts ever attempted." Also participating in the unique effort are the California Highway Patrol, the California Association of Insurance Agents, and the California Traffic Safety Foundation.

Halbert Harvard, president, San Mateo County Insurance Agents Association, declared today that his organization will work at the community level to interest as many people as possible in the moral implications of good driving. "Thoughtfulness and alertness are necessary if we are to reduce the number of accidents that has been plaguing our community's life. The steps we are taking should help to remind the entire driving public of its heavy and grave responsibility," he stated.

Guam Clothing Drive Held By Witnesses

Over 1200 pounds of clothing, sheets and towels are on their way to Guam to assist some 50 Jehovah's Witnesses on the island who lost their homes and possessions in a recent hurricane.

Jehovah's Witnesses in Daly City and San Francisco took part in the drive with all items donated by members of the congregations. Within three days after announcement was made, clothing was gathered and crates built ready for shipment. The Daly City Kingdom Hall was used as a central location for collecting and packing the clothing.

According to Harold E. Casperson, presiding minister of the Daly City Congregation, the hurricane also destroyed the Kingdom Hall and Missionary Home on the island. The Watchtower Society has already sent cash funds for immediate relief expenses. Casperson stated that the clothing shipments are to arrive December 11 by boat.

President Roland Finken stated "This is the highest total we have ever had and I feel it indicates that our teachers wholeheartedly support Bay Area welfare services."

Church to Honor New Members At Social Hall

Members of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church who have joined the congregation during the past year are to be honored this Sunday at a special "Friendly Time" gathering in the church social hall, immediately following the 11 a. m. worship service.

One hundred twenty-nine new members have been received into the 87th street church so for this year, coming by letter from another Protestant congregation, by confession of faith, having previously been baptised, or by baptism itself.

The board of decons, chairmaned by Ann Hollenbeck, will hostess the reception, serving light refreshments. Fran Dethlefsen, one of the 12 lady deacons of the Broadmoor church, mentioned that since the month "Friendly Times" always occur at noon, the light refreshments dissipate quite rapidly, and perhaps they should be beefed up with a deviled egg or two. "Come to think of it, that was an unfortunate choice of words," she said.

Some 20 new members were received into the congregation November 18, a few days before the news of the Cristen ranch proposed development was revealed. This prompted Rev. Herbert Tweedie, Broadmoor's minister, to note that the plans will most certainly offer a vital challenge to the ministry of all faiths in this area.

Said Rev. Tweedie: "When we came here five years ago, we could look southward to the green hills where now St. Francis Heights has been built. Behind the church were open fields. These now are being developed, offering more dwelling space to newcomers to the community. The area is growing so rapidly that the Presbyterian Church is organizing a new congregation in the Skyline area, under the direction of the Rev. Otto Henn, and I'm sure that with the ranch properties filled with homes and businesses, all our churches will be hard put to keep up with the influx of welcome new people."

Young Ralph Henn, a senior at Westmoor High School, has been "lease-lent" to the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church while his father is busy organizing the new Skyline church. As adviser to the Junior High Youth Fellowship, and a bass in the adult choir, Ralph is being kept busy by the Broadmoor people.

Television Broadcast

Other church announcements revealed that the Junior and Youth Choirs of Broadmoor Presbyterian have again been chosen to tape Christmas music for television broadcast during the holidays over station KPIX. Delmar Severy, director of music at Broadmoor, said: "This is a wonderful experience for the children. It gives them poise, confidence, and a chance to hear how they sound to themselves."

Mrs. Alma Wittig, who for seven years has been in charge of child and infant care during church functions, is taking a holiday from her duties. Said Mrs. Wittig: "I've been in church every Sunday for seven years without hearing a sermon. I feel I've a little catching up to do."

Reverend Tweedie did not mention whether he was preparing a special message for Mrs. Wittig. Mrs. Bea Hicks is in charge of the infant care program for the twin morning services at 9:30 and 11 a. m., as well as at all special church functions.

Catholic Men Get Yule Spirit

"The Yule Spirit promises to predominate throughout the whole evening and all that attend will be sure to leave full of Christmas cheer." Such is the assurance given by the Westlake Catholic Men's Club when describing their December meeting to be held Tuesday December 4, 1962 at 8:15 p. m. in the Parish Hall.

To insure the proper spirit President Charlie Wester has arranged for seasonal libations complete with membership awards for the lucky.

A very interesting movie has been obtained called "Showman Shooter." Being on the subject of trick shooting it should interest even the armchair sharp shooter.

All members are urged to attend and new members are especially welcome at this Christmas meeting.

The special milk program, initiated in 1954 by the United States department of agriculture, was set up to increase fluid milk consumption among children and teen-agers in elementary and secondary schools, and non-profit and child-age institutions.

Washington Assembly

The first assembly of the year at the George Washington grade school was called to order by student body president Steve Kirby, Friday morning. He presented Mrs. Margaret Clarke's fifth-sixth grade and Mrs. Violet Norsworthy's fifth grade for their musical contributions. Natalie Schurh announced the following numbers: "Old Texas," "Reuben and Rachel," "The Beautiful Blue Danube," "Santa Lucia," and "I Found a Horseshoe."

Principal Fred Schweickhardt welcomed the parents present and made the athletic awards. Mrs. Younga Hennessey's sixth-grade Cool Cats won both the boys' football league and the girls' kickball for the sixth grade. Mrs. Margaret Clarke's class won the boys' and girls' fifth-grade league in kickball under the name of Vikings.

Steve Kirby introduced the student body officers, vice-president Edda Montali, secretary Sandra Cross, treasurer Louise Hampton. The following traffic patrol officers were also introduced: Captain Steve White and Lieutenants Carolyn Persons and Karl Ow.

The afternoon class, which took the walk on Tuesday, November 6, was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Barbieri, Mrs. Harvey Goheen and Mrs. Clifford Lipson.

Hillside PTA

Hillside PTA Unit meeting was held in the multi-purpose room of the Colma School at 7:30 p.m., Thursday evening, November 15.

Mrs. Reta Poole, president, was pleased with the attendance of parents on Dad's night.

The Cub Scout Troop No. 244 led with the flag salute, represented by Chinto Fonseca, Daniel Huston, James Huston, Earl Di Maggio, Anthio Di Maggio, William Murphy, Mark D'Olivio, Billy Perla and Steve Merlo.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Walter Mails, of the San Francisco Giants, He was very entertaining and signed the Giants' year book for parents and faculty.

The door prize for the evening, a turkey, was won by Mrs. J. Williams, 444 Vista Grande, Daly City, mother of John Williams, a seventh-grade student.

PTA membership drive ended November 9, and the association is pleased to report that it has reached its goal, but any parents wishing to join are still welcome.

Annexation Study

The Christen Ranch has been sold for some $10 million. Daly City officials have sent out feelers, getting surveys of school needs, roads and engineering for the area with a look at possible annexation.

Yet, they are somewhat apprehensive of what Mayor Joseph Verducci calls a "negative" attitude in Daly City, caused by the defeat of the Callan annexation in 1960 when local voters turned the issue down.

This has started the mentality in Daly City that all annexations are bad. Yet, Verducci, who fought against the Callan annexation, states this does not have to be the case.

Other groups in Westlake and St. Francis Heights will undoubtedly again take up the flag against annexation. Pacifica and South San Francisco will probably (if they haven't already) put in their bid for the new lands—hoping that the coming new community of some 10,000 persons will belong to their city.

At the same time, Daly City has its foot in the door and hopes to keep it there.

Outgoing Chamber of Commerce president Frank Curry cited the possibilities of future jobs which would be created by annexation of the Christen lands.

Annexation, he said, also would pay for itself, with the inclusion of new funds from gas tax, motor vehicle taxes, alcohol beverage license fees, licenses and permits, property taxes and sales and use taxes..

Chamber planners would like to make Daly City the biggest and most influential city in the north county—a pistol-shaped strip of land stretching from the Ocean to San Francisco Bay—traveling across the Crocker Hills.

Annexation would create areas for new industry, according to Chamber planners, and bring in more employment.

In the future, Market street will be extended and a new road built through the Crocker Hills, linking Daly City and Brisbane. The Chamber officials see this as another step in the direction of improving the area for possible industrial sites.

top of the hill

By ARTEMUS BIERCE

As the last vestiges of Autumn are ready to slip out, the City prepares to become intoxicated on the prettiest and most festive time of the year.

Even the most veritable tee-toatler cannot help but succumb to the winter holiday cocktail—a clean winter sky, mixed well with the relaxing laughter of friends, with a slight touch of golden winter leaves added, and chilled by a cold north wind.

All through the streets of Daly City, Westlake and about, the sharp, cold stilettoes of winter pierce the air, making the cheeks of the young girls rosy, and making their eyes twinkle. The fog, for the most part, has withered out to sea, lost in the booming chants of the angry surf.

The populace readies for the new year, and lets by-gones be by-gones. The resplendent shopping center at Westlake, however commercial it may seem, appears to possess a sort of festive and gay soul, making a person relax and count his blessings.

On Mission street, near the hilltop, the sun resides and the young girls make their way home from another busy day of work, well bundled and flashing a heart-warming smile. This is winter in Daly City.

Down the road apiece on Mission street, near Colma, the south bound commuter traffic moves at a slower pace and the glowers of evil are noticeably missing, and in their place are the soft, and almost motherly, gazes of compassion and understanding.

Down at Marchbanks Park a friendly football game is just concluding as darkness pushes in over the San Bruno Mountains. The youths, still sweating and puffing, clasp each other and then scurry off towards their warm home to quell their prodigious appetites.

The autos themselves add to the holiday lustre, with the lights bouncing off of the autos, sending glittering hues off into the winter night.

This is the coming of winter—the holiday season and thank God we are a part of it.

The View From .. Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

The Indictment . . .

The Grand Jury indicted O'Brien for shooting and killing his wife. O'Brien pleaded "not guilty." The crime alleged was one of involntary manslaughter.

Because this investigation was not conducted before the television cameras, the case did not end with either the indictment or the arrest. The case and the investigating officers went to court for several days.

Days in court . . .

The proceedings were a trial by jury and were conducted in Department Five of the Superior Court. The Honorable Judge Blum presided, urbane, considerate, and gentlemanly, as always.

Brian Rowsen prosecuted for the District Attorney's staff. Frank Evans was the defense atorney. The trial took three days.

The Prosecution . . .

Eric Moncour was an eyeball witness, and he was questioned for the benefit of the jury.

Unfortunate necessity dictated the questioning of the next witness. He was seven-year-old Kevin O'Brien, son of the defendant, who had seen his mother shot.

Young Kevin promptly won over the entire courtroom as he was gently questioned by Rowsen. The episode prompted Frank Raymond to write a touching front page story for the San Francisco Examiner about the testimony of the sharp, personable, sad little boy.

Mrs. Callihan was the third eye witness, and a neighbor of the deceased. She, too, testified.

The experts . . .

Two weapons experts explained the workings of the death weapon, a United States .45 caliber pistol, which was in evidence.

Retired Lieutenant Colonel Vangene testified about the weapon from the summit of 29 years in the U. S. Infantry was the first expert.

Secondly, Sheriff's Office Assistant Criminologist Dougherty testified to the same weapon.

Thirdly, Dr. Lack, the pathologist, testified as to the victim's fatal injury.

The Officers . . .

Hansen, Munday, Gehringer and Hammermann testified for the Police Department. Two other investigators, Bastedo and Doran, did not testify.

The Defense . . .

The people rested their case. Evans called one defense witness—O'Brien, himself.

O'Brien was a personable, good looking, well groomed witness. He exuded his natural charm as he told his story.

The case for the defense rested.

The Arguments . . .

Now came the time for the opposing attorneys to sum up their arguments to the jury. It was the job of each man to evaluate the evidence for the jury.

Rowsen contended that O'Brien had exhibited such gross negligence at the time of the shooting as to be unquestionably guilty of the felony of manslaughter. In a really excellent summation, the prosecutor insisted upon the defendant's guilt.

Evans argued the case for an accidental shooting, meaning that, although his man had shot and killed Kevin's mother, O'Brien was not guilty of manslaughter.

Judge Blum recessed his court for the weekend, after three days of testimony and argument.

The Jury . . .

On the following Monday, Frank Blum instructed the jurors. He advised them of their duties, of the various aspects of the law in question in the case just heard.

The jury was turned over to the care of the Judge's Bailiff, Deputy Sheriff Babwin. The jury retired for deliberation.

The jury elected juror Frank Munoz as foreman. They deliberated. They were out for two and one half hours.

The Verdict . . .

Whether a jury is out for a long or short time, the wait is long.

When this jury reached a decision, they sent word to the judge that they had done so. Court was reconvened. The foreman made his announcement.

Six men and six women had found O'Brien to be guilty as charged.

By JACK WOOD

TOM TURKEY still holds a valuable place in the hearts of many Americans.

This venerable bird—who in real life is a real meanie, was the symbol last week of the Good Old Annual Feast still enjoyed by just about everyone lucky enough to get invited to dinner.

Plates were piled high with succulent dishes, garnished with cranberry sauce and whetted by the prepprandial cocktail.

The cook, whoever she may be, took on a new look in the eyes of the feast party, becoming of a sudden a saint of the day, bringer of good goodies and good tidings and all that.

Strangers arrived cold at the Thanksgiving table and departed as friends, happy in the feeling that This Old Custom had generated such old-fashioned good feeling in a day and age when Big Brother and the faceless mass threatens.

This hearty spirit should be maintained.

For as every woman knows the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. Every man knows he absolutely is nuts about a good cook.

Thanksgiving then is a time to bring out the best in both. The woman cooks a good meal which the men appreciate. By appreciating it he appreciates her. And feeling appreciated makes her feel good too.

True, she is stuck with the dishes. But the men appreciate this too. Yes they do.

The men have done their part by being there to appreciate it. And do they!

When the Pilgrim fathers started the old custom of puting on the feed and giving thanks they started probably what is one of the best loved of all Holidays.

Let's hope that Big Brother doesn't take that away too.

It's News To Vets

Q—May a widow who has previously been denied a claim for pension because her husband did not have a service-disconnected condition when he died, apply again under a new law?

A—Yes. The new pension law does not require that the veteran have a service-connected condition, but is based chifely on the financial need of the applicant or her minor children.

Q—How does a new law affect educational benefits for reserves called up for active service during the Berlin crisis?

A—A reservist whose training or education under the Korean GI Bill was interrupted by the call up for active service will have his deadline for completing his education or training extended by a period of time equal to the length of his "call-up" period of service.

Something For Everyone

by Samuel Chandler

It is no wonder that Walt Disney has been called one of the greatest living good-will ambassadors. The United Nations uses Disney-made films and books to fight disease and starvation in hundreds of backward lands. In Africa his characters are used to teach the principles of democracy to savages in countries liberated by European nations. Indeed, an estimate holds that Disney's creations reach one out of every three living persons in the world.

Walt Disney and his associates have made 550 films and have fifty-six books in print. Their television programs are watched around the world, even in Russia. Their work is sold as records, sheet music, comic books, and it can be seen on thousands of products from Mickey Mouse watches to Donald Duck Orange Juice to Jiminy Cricket umbrellas.

In choosing material for his films, programs, and books Walt Disney follows some basic principles. These have been recorded by Larry Wolters in the April issue of Today's Health. Here are a few of them:

Good ideas don't often come to you (an author or writer) in a blinding flash. They are based on experience, preparation, perhaps for many years and even from chance meetings. Every picture (program, book) must have a separate genesis. I try to make happy, humorous pictures. We all enjoy laughter. We have too little of it in this world. Humor is a sort of international sixth sense. It makes life with intolerable burdens tolerable.

I don't like depressing pictures. I don't like pestholes, and I don't like things that are dirty. I never make a picture for children . . . just for children. Never play down to children; never patronize.

Basic morality is always implicit . . . Strong combat and soft satire are the cores of our stories. Virtue triumphs over wickedness in our fables. Tyrannical bullies are routed or conquered by good little people, human or animal.

There must be just enough imagination to take the characters out of the real and into the imaginary. Yet, if they do not appear natural the effect will be ruined.

With these principles working for him, Walt Disnew has become, writes Mr. Wolters, "an exponent and purveyor of the best in good clean, exciting and informative entertainment. He gives the United States a better image throughout the world."

MOBIL DEALER Guy Cook (left) of 99 Midvale drive and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Cristoni, same address, Daly City, were numbered among the nearly 3,000 Mobil dealers, wives and oil company marketers from every state west of the Mississippi River attending the 1962 Mobil dealer convention in Las Vegas, November 14-15. At their sixth annual get-together, the petroleum retailers heard discussions by Mobil dealers of successful experiences in business-building, employee recruitment and in improving employee relations. Herbert Willetts, president of Socony Mobil Oil Company, and other nationally-known speakers were featured on the program.

Sabin III Polio Date Is March 31

Sabin Type III oral polio vaccine is scheduled to be given in the Bay Area next March 31, K. O. Polio program chairman Dr. Edward B. Shaw announced.

"The date was selected," said Dr. Shaw, "because it is well in advance of the polio season and private doctors sponsoring the program here are hoping that by March 31 the Sabin Type III vaccine will have been cleared for everyone, rather than merely for children 18 and under."

Type III oral vaccine at present is under study by state and national medical officials to determine whether it is safe for persons of all ages. It has been declared safe for the 18 and under age group.

The entire program is sponsored by the Bay Area Medical Association Committee to K. O. Polio. It represents more than 6,000 private physicians in the San Francisco Medical Society, Marin Medical Society, Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association and San Mateo and Santa Clara County Medical Societies.

Measuring Stick For Space Fuel

Acoustica Associates, Inc., of Los Angeles has announced development of the first known practical device to measure fuel accurately under zero-gravity conditions encountered in space travel.

Rollin M. Russell, company president, said a new volumetric gauge called the compressometer was developed by Dr. Andrew V. Haeff, technical advisor to the president. According to Dr. Haeff, the Compressometer has shown an accuracy exceeding one per cent in laboratory experiments using conventional electro-acoustic transducers. The accuracy and reliability of the Compressometer, he pointed out, are in no way affected by liquid turbulence, sloshing, bubbling or foam.

In addition to its unique capabilities under zero-gravity conditions, the new method offers the advantages of simplicity and accuracy in many other applications, Dr. Haeff stated.

The device consists of the "acoustic head," which can be placed anywhere in the tank; electrical circuit unit including the power supply; and the liquid volume indicator which gives a direct reading on a calibrated scale of an electrical meter or presents the data in digital form. Provision can be made for a remote indicator and for telemetering of analog or digital information.

TV and RADIO

By Mona Baker

Community channel KQED still has an operating deficit of $52,000, although income surpossed expenses by $1,600 during the fiscal year. This information was given out by general manager James Day at last week's membership meeting, attended by many local members from the Daly City area.

There are now 14,867 dues-paying members of Channel 9, which is certainly a small percentage of the many Bay Area viewers who watch the program.

Manager Day urged increased membership and contributions from the viewing public, depending on whatever the viewer considers his "fair share" membership to support KQED operations. Memberships are available at $12.50, $14.50, $17.50 or more a year. Won't you send in yours?

On the subject of programming, certainly one of the most powerfully moving series on television is the "Lotte Lehmann Maser Class," now being seen over KQED on Tuesdays at 8 p. m. It is an intimate look at one of the truly great figures of opera and the concert stage whose careers spanned a period of 50 years, as she conducts her classes in opera and lieder. The close-up camera shots of her face, her expressive hands reveal a great and talented woman.

TV NEWS BRIEFS: Now seen on a new time over ABC, KGO-TV, is the entertaining "Tennessee Ernie Ford Show," scheduled for weekdays at 12 noon. Also on Channel 7, new half-hour show — "Girl Talk" — with hostess Virginia Graham.

Two important dates over KRON-TV, "The World of Jacqueline Kennedy," to be seen November 30 at 10 p. m. and on December 1 at 6: 30 p. m. documentary on Mendocino Coast titled "The Untamed Coast."

"The Creative Performer" will launch the fifth season of Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic on December 3, over CBS, KPIX, at 7:30 p.m. Also on Channel 5, December 2, special panel discussion on "Community Workshop," titled "A New St. Mary's Cathedral."

Over KTVU's "Shirley Temple Festival" delightful "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" on December 2 at 4 p. m.
